Prophecy—or Become God's Enemy!

God gives prophecy for a purpose, and He wants it published.
He strongly warns those who fail to do the job.

IF YOU LOOK INTO YOUR BIBLE, YOU WILL FIND A GREAT deal of prophecy. In fact, ONE THIRD of your Bible is prophecy! However, if you listen to preachers, televangelists and others talking about God, you hear very little about Bible prophecy. Why?

If you don't understand Bible prophecy, you cannot really understand world events—and you certainly cannot know the future, along with many other things.

In several places in Scripture, God COMMANDS His people to prophesy. He gave those prophecies for important reasons, and He expects them to be proclaimed! And 90 percent of prophecy is for our time TODAY.

But there is a tendency—also foretold in the Bible—for some of God's people to run from that responsibility. I want to show you how this has happened in our day—at a time when many of the Bible's prophecies are coming to pass and the need to publicize and explain them is greater than ever!

Most of God's own people have a “prophecy not” message today and have rejected Bible prophecy. That is a serious problem. In fact, God says these people have become His enemy! And the primary reason is that they have rejected Bible prophecy!

This is why the Trumpet magazine has such a strong message of prophecy. Do you view Bible prophecy the way God does, the way He wants you to?

Christ's Olivet Prophecy

Jesus Christ Himself prophesied when He was on Earth. He gave His greatest prophecy on the Mount of Olives, when His disciples came to Him and wanted to know what would be the sign of the coming of the end of the world. They wanted to know and understand prophecy.

Here is how Christ responded: “... Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ [in other words, they talk about the personality of Christ]; and shall deceive many” (Matthew 24:4-5). He warned about people using Christ's name but failing to teach His message.

Now, prophecy was a big part of Christ's message! Yet most preachers today make it very clear that they are not into prophecy and don't want to speak about it.

Christ goes on to warn about “wars and rumours of wars” and many other troubles. We see these already today. But He said, “All these are the beginning of sorrows” (verse 8). This is only the beginning—conditions will get worse! What a potent warning!

“And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many” (verse 11). Yes, there are FALSE PROPHETS! Most of them are telling you that things are not as bad as you think! They have a message of peace—when Jesus Christ has a warning about war and many other crises in this world (e.g. Matthew 10:34).

In His Matthew 24 prophecy, Christ speaks of “the abomination of desolation” (verse 15)—a fearsome ARMY that simply des- olates its enemies. And verses 21 and 22 say that if Christ didn't intervene, there would “no flesh be saved” alive on Earth! This is clearly describing our day, when nations are equipped with nuclear bombs and other weapons of mass destruction!

What a deadly world we live in! But there is tremendous hope if we look to Christ and His message! He is going to ensure that mankind doesn't exterminate itself!

So Jesus gave many signs that would precede His return. Then He said, “[W]hen ye shall see all these things, KNOW THAT IT IS NEAR, EVEN AT THE DOORS” (verse 33). What is near? His return! He is saying that in order to know when that great event is “at the doors,” YOU MUST UNDERSTAND PROPHECY!

He then said, “Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods” (verses 46-47). If you obey God and do His work, He will give you RULE—eventually, believe it not, over the whole universe! That is a promise and a prophecy from God, right out of the mouth of Jesus Christ. You can be CERTAIN it will come to pass.

That gives you an idea of how Christ Himself views prophecy and how He expects us to pay attention to it. We need to think the way Christ does about this subject.

That is why it is so deeply concerning when God's people fail in this duty.

'My People ... an Enemy'

Micah is one of the prophets in the Old Testament, and his prophecy was intended for our day. Micah 2:4 and other verses describe events "in that day"; any time you see that phrase, it refers to this end time.

Notice this alarming scenario: "Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophecy ..." (verse 6). Here are people saying, Stop prophesying!

These people say, "[O]ne should not preach of such things; disgrace will not overtake us" (Revised Standard Version). They don't believe God's prophecies and warnings; they think they will be just fine. But they are sorely mistaken!

Who are the people making this grave error in this prophecy? It is actually God's own people!

Look what God says in verse 8: "Even of late [or recently; all this is in the latter days] MY PEOPLE is risen up as an ENEMY" That is a serious accusation from God against His own people! What is wrong? They knew the truth and knew all about Bible prophecy, and they REJECTED it! So now they are God's enemy, of all things!

Revelation 3:14-22 is a prophecy of the present era in God's true Church. Tragically, 95 percent of God's own people have turned away from Him! They have become spiritually lukewarm and don't want to prophesy. They are saying prophecy not—much like the rest of the world. They think that "they shall not take shame"—but the truth is the opposite! There is grotesque shame and punishment coming upon God's people who have rebelled against Him.

God's condemnation in Micah 2:8 continues: "... ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war." This "garment" refers to our spiritual lives; God's people are to be clothed in fine linen, the righteousness of the saints (Revelation 19:8). But these saints are spiritually naked (Revelation 3:14-17).

"Averse from war" means these people have become weak. They are not using the power of God, and they don't want to fight for God and war against Satan the devil. Satan is the god of this world. He deceives the whole world because they don't fight against him with the power of God (2 Corinthians 4:4; Revelation 12:9).

The term "house of Jacob" in Micah 2:7 refers prophetically to the modern nations descended from ancient Israel, particularly America, Britain and the Jewish state in the Middle East. (Jacob was the patriarch's name before God changed it to Israel—Genesis 32:28. In prophecy, Jacob refers specifically to the physical people of modern Israel. You can prove this truth in our free book The United States and Britain in Prophecy.) So this prophecy is dual: It is for physical people, but it is also for spiritual Israel, which is God's Church. (Read our reprint article "Prophetic Duality" at theTrumpet.com/go/duality.)

Free upon request

Micah 3:1-3 describe a horrific scene: people eating others alive spiritually! That is what Satan is doing to people in God's Church and in the world.

"Thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him" (verse 5). Even though war is all around us, these false prophets preach peace! But man does not know the way of peace (Isaiah 59:8). They should, and they could, but they don't—and it is leading to catastrophic war. God says these prophets are preparing war against GOD and what He says! Truly, they are risen up as God's ENEMIES!

Christ Himself values prophecy and expects us to pay attention to it. We need to think the way Christ does. That is why it is so deeply concerning when God's people fail in this duty.

Micah 3:6 continues: "Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them." God's people who have rebelled against Him are in darkness. They are not in the light, they don't know what's going on, and they are ignorant of Bible prophecy. They lack vision, and where there is no vision, the people perish (Proverbs 29:18).

What a blistering warning: PROPHECY—OR BECOME GOD'S ENEMY!

'Who Can But Prophecy?'

There is a parallel prophecy in the book of Amos.

This is God speaking—read this carefully: "And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the Lord. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not" (Amos 2:11-12). There it is again: Leaders within God's Church commanding their own people, Prophecy not! You can't prophecy here! God condemns them fiercely for that—it is a serious problem! These people commanded, and anyone who prophesied anyway was kicked out of the Church.

Verses 14-16 show how, when you turn away from God, you lose all your strength!

Amos 3:8 asks this penetrating question: "The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophecy?" God has spoken. How can you sit back and not prophecy? This is a matter of life and death! The Eternal God has spoken to try to warn people of the coming troubles. WHO CAN BUT PROPHECY? All these prophecies are being fulfilled right before our eyes! God wants us to PROPHECY and tell this world what it all means and where it is leading!

This is why we prophesy. This is why this magazine you are reading exists. God has spoken, and we are compelled to share the understanding of His prophecies with a world that desperately needs them.

The Breaker—and the King

Micah's prophecy includes some fascinating details about the ripple effects of God's people turning away from their responsibility to prophesy. God says through this prophet, "I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men. The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the Lord on the head of them" (Micah 2:12-13).

I explain this prophecy in detail in my free booklet Micah: God's People Have Risen Up as His Enemy. Who is this "breaker" who is leading a procession, and what are they breaking up? This is God's response to the spiritual disaster happening in His own Church, which we read about in Micah 3. Verse 11 talks about these false prophets who believe "none evil can come upon us"—they reject what God says, including Bible prophecy—and God says to BREAK OUT of that! That is exactly what we had to do in our Church. The leaders had turned away from God, and we had to get out—Christ had to raise up another Church. The rest of them—95 percent of God's people—became the enemy of God!

God says, Look, if your own Church turns away from God, you leave and you continue to prophesy! This group continues to do God's work. They are given special understanding, and they are proclaiming the many prophecies that are only for this end time.

Now, look closely at that passage, and you will notice an interesting detail: "their king shall pass before them." Many people, and most commentaries, believe this "king" in Micah 2:13 is Jesus Christ. But that cannot be, because He is "the Lord on the head of them." This is about God's Church, and Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church (Ephesians 1:22; Colossians 1:18). He is in charge. But there is also a king here—God's man inside God's own Church.

Lange's Commentary states, "[T]heir king passes on before them, for no other than the king, out of the house of David, can be that breaker" This man comes from the house of David, and that is where David's throne is. The truth is, this king is actually sitting on David's throne.

When people reject God's prophecies, they also reject the great news that God has for all of us.

How much do you know about David's throne? If you really want to understand Bible prophecy, then this an important subject to study into.

Before Jesus Christ was born, an angel appeared to His mother. "And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end" (Luke 1:30-33). This is an electrifying prophecy!

Way back in the time of King David, God promised that this man's throne would always have a descendant of David sitting on it—all the way to the Second Coming! Read that in 2 Samuel 7:12-16. The throne of David will always be on this Earth—and then Jesus Christ Himself will inherit it and sit on it forever! Do you believe that? This prophecy is explained in detail in The United States and Britain in Prophecy, by Herbert W. Armstrong.

Where is the throne of David today? There is a great deal of scriptural evidence, like Micah 2:13, that God has placed that throne within His Church today, the people to whom He is revealing His prophecies. This is extremely important for you to prove. I have written an entire book on the subject, titled The New Throne of David. I would love to send you a free copy. You need to prove this doctrine from your own Bible.

The Good News

The Prophet Isaiah also has a related prophecy. Speaking of "the time to come" (Isaiah 30:8)—or the latter day that we now live in—he denounces "a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the Lord: Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits" (verses 9-10).

This is the way human beings like it! They don't want truth. They would rather hear deceit than the TRUE PROPHECY OF GOD! This is what human nature wants! They don't want God's way of life; they want to be lawless. And so they tell their own ministers: We don't want God's prophecies. We don't want to hear any bad news. Just teach us smooth things. "Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us" (verse 11). These people pushed God Himself out of the Church! And He let it happen to expose their evil.

What these people don't realize is that when they reject God's prophecies, they also reject the GREAT NEWS that God has for all of us!

Yes, God's prophecy includes many warnings of the terrible events that absolutely WILL HAPPEN if we do not repent. You see these conditions all around you right now, and they are getting worse. But God's prophecy culminates in the wonderful, inspiring truth about the solutions that God has planned and which will be implemented once Christ returns—and even what He would do for us right now if we would turn to Him.

God commands those He calls into His Church before Christ's Second Coming to publish His message, and prophecy for Him. He is going to give us a reward so wonderful it shatters the imagination—if we will work hard to let this world know what is coming and give them the opportunity to repent. GOD WANTS TO SAVE PEOPLE FROM THE SUFFERING THAT IS COMING!

You can read one of those prophecies in Micah 4:1-5. This passage shows that God is going to stop all war. He will bring peace and joy and abundance into this world that people have never even imagined!

We focus on prophecy—and so should you.

Without understanding prophecy, you cannot understand world news. Yet many have a "prophecy not" attitude.

Request Gerald Flurry's free booklet Micah: God's People Rise Up as His Enemy to understand the importance of prophecy in your life.

Exposed: The United States

The migrant crisis is a tool to transform America into a socialist dictatorship.

BY ANDREW MILLER

Invasion

THOUSANDS OF ILLEGAL aliens are crossing the southern United States border every day. Why is the U.S. government allowing this to happen?

Many of these aliens are trafficking cannabis, cocaine, fentanyl, heroin, methamphetamine and human beings. And the danger does not stop with gangs and cartels. In addition to the violent drug traffickers exploiting the open border, Chinese spies, Islamic terrorists, Russian oligarchs and many other criminals are also entering the U.S. via Mexico.

You would think that sealing the border would be America's number one national security priority. Yet the Biden-Harris administration has chosen to ignore this crisis while the media covers for its deliberate failures.

The most common media narrative is that bloody turf wars between drug cartels are pushing refugees north. It's true that the majority of illegal aliens come from Brazil, Colombia, Cuba, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Peru and Venezuela. Yet many come from as far away as China, India, Lebanon, Russia, the Congo and Turkey. This second category of immigrants isn't necessarily fleeing violence. Instead, many are exploiting holes in U.S. border security to commit serious crimes in the U.S.

Official U.S. Customs and Border Protection statistics show that 56 percent of the illegals crossing the border are single adults, and photographic evidence suggests that the vast majority of these single adults are military-age men.

This means the border crisis is a literal military invasion that has succeeded in bringing millions of potential soldiers to U.S. cities and towns spread from the East Coast to the West Coast.

The border crisis is a national security nightmare!

Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry has pinpointed former President Barack Obama as responsible for actively using illegal immigration and its resulting social problems to transform America into a socialist state. How is he doing this? For the answer, let us examine the border crisis's inner workings.

Obama on Immigration

As a U.S. senator, Obama stated in 2005, "We simply cannot allow people to pour into the United States undetected, undocumented, unchecked and circumventing the line of people who are waiting patiently, diligently and lawfully to become immigrants in this country." Nine years later, Obama admitted to George Stephanopoulos that there was a humanitarian crisis at the border. So at least we know that Obama understands that an open border is unfair to legal immigrants and downright dangerous for illegal aliens.

When he was president, Obama deported 3 million illegal aliens, more people than any other U.S. president ever. Yet he also launched the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) initiative that violated the U.S. Constitution for the sake of granting de facto amnesty to approximately 590,000 illegal aliens if they arrived in the U.S. as children. Clearly, Obama was never a die-hard border security hawk. His DACA initiative incentivized illegal immigrants to send their children through dangerous drug cartel-controlled territory in hopes that they could stay in the U.S. It was a truly lawless decision that helped pave the way for the current migrant crisis.

Yet DACA didn't let millions of military-age men across the border—until recently. Something has clearly changed in Obama's thinking since he counterattacked the Trump presidency by installing Joe Biden as his White House puppet president.

Hundreds of migrants from Central America, Venezuela and elsewhere set out from Chiapas, Mexico, for the United States border.

Route

Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry has asserted from before the Biden presidency—before the Trump presidency—almost since the beginning of the Obama presidency—that the one exerting control over the federal government is Barack Obama. (Visit AmericaUnderAttack.com.)

With Obama controlling the White House from his mansion a mile and a half away, Biden stopped construction on Trump's border wall, torpedoed Trump's "Remain in Mexico" agreement, and appointed open-border radicals to head up the Department of Homeland Security, the U.S. military and the U.S. judiciary. These actions directly created the most severe border crisis in U.S. history.

As incentives have risen and barriers have dropped, an unknown total number of illegal immigrants have streamed into the country since Biden took the White House. At least 8 million people have been apprehended in that time; among those, more than 3 million have been released by the government into the interior of the country. This compares to just over 2 million apprehended during the Trump administration (when the Remain in Mexico agreement was in place).

Obama supports Biden's moves—while relying on his supporters in the United Nations to import even more illegal aliens from around the world.

Some of the more clear-eyed conservatives, like New Zealand author Trevor Loudon, believe there is "an orchestrated, Communist assault on America, to destroy America's borders, to create confusion in America, to overwhelm the system politically" (Epoch Times, May 29, 2019). These conservatives usually focus on Democratic Party efforts to do away with voter ID laws so they can steal elections with illegal votes. Yet this election fraud is only part of the radical left's strategy to fundamentally transform America.

Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry has been bolder and more specific. He has stated that Obama's plan is to intentionally import "soldiers," agents who can sow division, violence, terrorism, race war and civil war in America.

This is a shocking claim, but there is strong evidence to support it.

Weaponized Migration Program

Nearly two thirds of Americans believe illegal immigration is a crisis. Still, Biden is doing next to nothing to stop the flow. In fact, people who worked for Obama are actively bringing aliens from all over the world to Latin America so they can join the caravans streaming to the border.

You read that right. Former Obama administration officials are facilitating the movement of immigrants from around the world to the U.S. border.

On January 16, the investigative group Muckraker published a 40-minute documentary revealing the route that illegal aliens take into America. Investigative journalist Thomas Hicks and his brother actually flew to Ecuador and hiked the entire mass migration trail to the United States. They discovered secret Chinese hotels, met with UN employees, crossed the dangerous Darién Gap (which connects Colombia to Panama), were smuggled into Mexico by the Sinaloa Cartel, rode the Mexican Train of Death, and were even kidnapped by the Gulf Cartel before making it back to the U.S.

This gripping documentary, United States Invasion Route Exposed, showcases the entire illegal alien pipeline into the U.S. for what it truly is: a United Nations-supported migration agenda masquerading as an organic humanitarian crisis.

This pipeline starts in Ecuador because of how easily the Chinese, Congolese, Indians, Lebanese, Russians, Somalians, Syrians, Turkmen, Ukrainians, Vietnamese, Zimbabweans and many other nationalities can enter that country. Once these aliens arrive in Ecuador, it is easy for them to make their way to one of the Ecuadorian refugee camps hosting displaced people from Colombia, Haiti, Peru and Venezuela. Yet the UN employees at these camps are doing more than feeding the hungry.

Hicks has video footage of the International Organization for Migration (IOM) passing out food, hiking kits and maps to the United States. This is shocking proof that the IOM is helping illegal aliens find their way to the U.S. border. Some of the maps show all the migration-related organizations in Tulán, Ecuador, directing migrants into highly dangerous territory, such as the Darién Gap, or cartel-controlled areas of Mexico. A true humanitarian organization would use its resources to keep people away from zones controlled by the Gulf Cartel, the Jalisco New Generation Cartel and the Sinaloa Cartel. This organization is doing the opposite. Why?

The International Organization for Migration is facilitating and partially creating huge migration flows northward, joining with Panamanians, Costa Ricans, Nicaraguans, Hondurans, Salvadorians, Guatemalans, Belizeans and Mexicans, all for one main purpose: to fundamentally transform the United States.

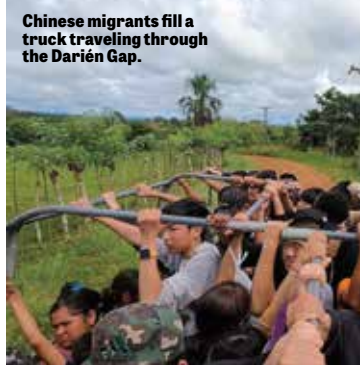

The UN's 2024 Regional Refugee and Migrant Response Plan devotes $1.6 billion to immigrants in 17 Latin American countries. Yet despite the fact that this money is assumed to be for displaced Venezuelans, the document's fine print says the largesse goes to "all nationalities" and "multiple other nationalities." In a nutshell, the UN plans to spread $372 million in "cash and voucher assistance" and "multipurpose cash assistance" to some 624,000 immigrants in transit to the U.S. this year.

The IOM was founded to help refugees after World War II, but its current director general, Amy Pope, has pivoted the IOM's mission to smuggling Third World immigrants into First World countries.

Pope was one of Obama's Homeland Security deputy advisers. After she left her government position, she quickly pivoted to smuggling immigrants into the U.S.

Obama likely has enough influence with Pope to convince her to stop helping millions of unvetted illegal aliens from pouring into the country, but he is not using that influence. Why? After all, he said himself in 2005 that letting millions of illegal aliens stream across the border was a bad idea. Yet his people are now helping create and sustain this very real threat to U.S. national security.

Designed to Fail

The border crisis is the result not of incompetence but of treason. The UN and various drug cartels bring migrants to the U.S. border, but it is radical, Obama-connected U.S. officials who open the border.

Illegal border crossings were at record lows during the Trump administration due to a Department of Homeland Security policy requiring asylum seekers at the U.S. southern border to "Remain in Mexico" until their court date. Biden ended this policy soon after he took office. This allowed hundreds of thousands of people to cross into the United States and wait there for their court date. It also encouraged more migrants from around the world to make the dangerous journey to the U.S. in hopes of staying.

Biden made Vice President Kamala Harris his "border czar" and Alejandro Mayorkas his Secretary of Homeland Security. As the border crisis rapidly deteriorated, Americans were startled and furious when neither Biden nor Harris visited the border or addressed the disaster in any meaningful way.

Meanwhile, Mayorkas actively engineered radical open-border policies.

"It is hard to think of a single appointed official in U.S. history who has done more harm to this country's sovereignty, territorial integrity and rule of law than this one man [Mayorkas]," Simon Hankinson wrote for the Hill. "First, he dropped agreements with Mexico and other countries that had effectively deterred fraudulent asylum claims by keeping applicants out of the country while their claims were evaluated.

Second, he stopped work on physical barriers at the border that could control and channel illegal entry" (Dec. 29, 2023).

These are the actions of a man who is systematically dismembering the effective border security measures Trump put in place. Mayorkas was impeached by the U.S. House of Representatives on February 13 for his deliberate failure to secure the border, but he was not convicted and has since continued to keep the border wide open. The only explanation for this is malevolent intent: Mayorkas is helping to design failure at the border.

Like Amy Pope, Mayorkas is also a former Obama administration official. He was director of United States Citizenship and Immigration Services during Obama's first term and deputy secretary of Homeland Security during Obama's second term. He worked very closely with Pope during the years Obama was president and heartily congratulated her when she became the IOM director general. These Obama alumni now control both sides of the Mexican border. Pope helps migrants enter Mexico with maps to the U.S., and Mayorkas opens the back door.

Two years ago, commentator Tucker Carlson revealed e-mails in which Lt. Col. Matthew Burrows of Laughlin Air Force Base in Texas informed his subordinates that they would be using passenger aircraft to transport illegal immigrants to various cities and towns in the U.S. Burrows also told them they were forbidden from taking photographs or revealing the existence of this operation. U.S. Army spokesman Chris Mitchells and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement confirmed that Laughlin base personnel were indeed relocating foreign nationals into the interior of the country.

Not only is the radical Biden-Harris administration turning a blind eye to illegal border crossings, it is actively flying illegal aliens over the border and into the interior of the country!

Sen. Ted Cruz said in January that he actually misses Barack Obama because he enforced U.S. border law better than Biden does. Yet the fact that Obama has not publicly criticized Biden, Harris, Mayorkas, Pope or any other Democratic Party official whom he hired during his administration is a clue that these officials are actually carrying out Obama's will. Something sinister is going on.

Illegal Voter Registration Drive

Many analysts think demographic shifts caused by immigration could turn Texas into a Democrat-voting state within an election cycle. That would mean no Republican would ever win a presidential election. Democrats could transform the U.S. into a socialist state simply by eliminating proof of citizenship as a requirement to vote—the last nail in the coffin of America's already horrendous state of election security safeguards.

"This is an orchestrated Communist assault on America, to destroy America's borders, to create confusion in America, to overwhelm the system politically," Trevor Loudon, a communism expert, told the Epoch Times. "You can see what 15, 16, 20, 25 million new Democratic voters are going to do to this country. You will lose Texas; you'll lose Florida; you will lose Georgia, Arizona, North Carolina. There will never be, ever, another Republican or conservative president in our lifetimes. You will have a one-party state in America" (May 29, 2019).

Loudon said that five years ago. Many mocked people like him as foolish conspiracy theorists. Yet Biden told a Spanish-language radio show earlier this year that illegal immigrants are future voters. And a new video shared by the Heritage Foundation's Oversight Project and produced by Muckraker reveals that a shocking number of illegal aliens are registered to vote. Specifically, it shows that 14 percent of respondents at an apartment complex in Georgia admitted to being noncitizens registered to vote.

This apartment complex might be an outlier. The Biden regime admits there are 11.4 million illegal aliens present in this country (a number they have reason to underreport). If 14 percent of these cast a ballot for the Democratic candidate this November, that would equate to 1.6 million illegal votes.

In Hicks's documentary, numerous illegal aliens express disdain for Donald Trump's wall and admiration for Joe Biden's open-border policy. Could Obama be deliberately flooding the nation with potential Democratic voters? It certainly seems the Obama-Biden-Harris regime is trying to force on America an authoritarian government by importing millions of aliens used to living under authoritarian rule in their home countries. This should concern anyone who believes in principles like the rule of law, separation of powers, equal protection and civil liberties.

"This is an orchestrated Communist assault on America, to destroy America's borders, to create confusion in America"

Consider an example from ancient history: The fundamental nature of the ancient Roman Republic changed as so many Arameans, Armenians, Chaldeans, Edomites, Phoenicians, Samaritans and Syrians relocated to the Italian Peninsula that the Latins became a minority in their own country. This ethnic shift rendered the citizens of Rome helpless in the face of an authoritarian government common in Babylon and the surrounding areas. It also gave would-be authoritarians like Julius Caesar a veritable "army" of impoverished citizens who would support him against the Senate. These "new Romans" voted for Caesar in droves and violently rioted on his behalf when his opponent tried to take back power.

If Obama is thinking along these lines, the illegals his supporters are flying to various parts of America could do more than simply vote Democrat: If the Republican Party starts to take back the country from the radical left, these illegals could riot.

Terrorism and Race Wars

Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry wrote in his 2016 article "The Real Agenda Behind Black Lives Matter" (theTrumpet.com/13722) about how Communists took over Czechoslovakia in 1948 through a two-pronged strategy. This strategy required pressure from two directions simultaneously: from the upper levels of government and from provocateurs in the streets.

The Obama-Biden-Harris regime is using a similar strategy to transform America. Liberals in academia, government and media have long fought legal battles to undermine the Constitution. Now radical activists are threatening to join the fight in the streets if they have to.

Obama was mentored by the radical Communist Frank Marshall Davis in the 1970s—a man who was deeply influenced by Soviet efforts to lure disaffected African-Americans from the party of Abraham Lincoln to the party of Vladimir Lenin. In cooperation with Marxist revolutionaries like Lovett Fort-Whiteman and Claude McKay, Kremlin officials sought to literally divide America by carving out a Soviet-controlled "Negro Republic" in the Southern United States.

Of course, this Soviet plan failed. Yet there are still Communist groups in America. For example, the Freedom Road Socialist Organization advocates splitting the U.S. into an African-American republic in the southeast, a Hispanic nation in the southwest, and a Hawaiian kingdom in the Pacific Ocean.

So the idea of inflaming racial tensions to enact political change is not new. Therefore, if Obama sees that he cannot enact fundamental change via electoral means, he could resort to the more traditional views of Marxist revolution he was indoctrinated in as a teenager.

Some 40 years ago, a perceptive columnist at Universal Press Syndicate, Georgie Anne Geyer, predicted: “If the Marxist civil wars in Central America are not contained, we will see a hemorrhage of Central Americans, many of them carrying with them extremist, Marxist and irredentist ideologies.” This prediction has come to pass.

America is full of illegal aliens harboring dangerous Marxist notions who, if properly organized, could participate in a Bolshevik-style revolution. Until recently, it seemed unlikely that these immigrants could do much more than join gangs and participate in race riots. But if the United Nations is helping them come to America in the first place, Obama may have the means at his disposal to try to force Donald Trump from power in a violent coup.

“We are not fighting a single nation in a military war, but a gigantic worldwide, plain-clothes army, masquerading as a political party, seeking to conquer the world with an entirely new kind of warfare!” the late Herbert W. Armstrong wrote in 1956. “It’s a kind of warfare we don’t understand, or know how to cope with. It uses every diabolical means to weaken us from within, sapping our strength, perverting our morals, sabotaging our educational system, wrecking our social structure, destroying our spiritual and religious life, weakening our industrial and economic power, demoralizing our armed forces, and finally, after such infiltration, overthrowing our government by force and violence! ... Communism is worldwide psychological WARFARE!”

In a Communist revolution, the soldiers don’t have to march under a particular banner wearing a particular uniform. They just have to sow enough chaos that people turn to Big Government for solutions. Yet in some specific incidences, the soldiers do fight for a foreign government. More than 370 people on the terrorist watchlist have been apprehended attempting to illegally cross the southern border since the beginning of Fiscal Year 2021. Clearly, then, many illegal immigrants are marching under the banner of radical Islam. And an unknown number of Chinese Communist Party spies are also crossing the border alongside Chinese refugees. Many many illegal immigrants are “capital C” Communists. The Biden-Harris government officials behind the border crisis probably have more in common with the Communists than the Islamists. But they are willing to let both groups into the nation if it undermines America’s republican form of government.

If the Republican Party starts to take back the country from the radical left, these illegals could riot.

According to Dr. John C. Drew, a political scientist who knew Obama at Occidental, as early as 1980 Obama was predicting a violent people’s revolution against the American Republic. So his efforts to bring dissatisfied military-age men from around the world to the U.S. may be motivated by a truly sinister desire.

Look how much damage a few thousand George Floyd rioters did in 2020. Imagine how much worse it would be if millions of illegal aliens revolted. America has entered a truly dangerous period in its nearly 250-year history.

Prophesied Destruction

A dire prophecy in Ezekiel 5:12 reveals that one third of the population of America and Britain will die from the pestilence, famine and violence that will result from civil war. That equals more than 100 million deaths from rioting and warfare in the U.S. (Request our free book Ezekiel—The End-Time Prophet, by Gerald Flurry.)

Today, socialism is gathering strength. People don’t understand that “democratic socialism” and “dictatorial socialism” have the same purpose: to overthrow constitutional government, by violence if necessary. Bible prophecy shows that America’s great blessings will indeed be taken away—not just because socialists “outmaneuvered” conservatives, but because the American people have turned away from God. Their rebellion has opened the door to communism and other forces that want to destroy America.

Many conservatives can see the direction the border crisis is taking the nation, but only a few recognize that Obama is using Biden, Harris, Mayorkas, Pope and others to destabilize the nation to the point where the left can seize absolute control. Prophecy tells us that civil war is coming, but God also promises in Amos 7:8 that He will give the people one last chance to repent.

Mr. Flurry’s book America Under Attack explains that God will bring Trump back to power as a means of stabilizing the nation for a short time. There could be violence marring Trump’s return as the left fights to keep him from office. But this violence will be minor compared to the savagery that awaits if people don’t take advantage of this last opportunity for unmerited pardon.

“Right now, the big question regarding fulfilled prophecy is how Donald Trump will regain power,” Mr. Flurry writes in America Under Attack. “America is in the throes of an [Obama] regime that is rapidly driving the nation toward radicalism, socialism, amorality, class division, civil war and outright destruction. In 2 Kings 14:26, America’s affliction is very bitter, and the nation has no helper! But God’s prophecies are sure.”

One way or another, God will use these events to show us the result of sin and turning away from Him to our own ways of thinking. He will use them to lead us to Him (Ezekiel 12:17-20). God blesses people for obedience, and curses them for disobedience. Only after people learn this lesson will God bless America—and all nations—with peace, joy and prosperity.

It is a matter of life-and-death importance that everyone who hears this message take note of the times, evaluate their life, and turn to God in repentance. Obama’s orchestrated border crisis may give the nation a foretaste of what civil war is like, but much worse awaits if we do not learn from that crisis! ■

Import illegals—import communism

Mass Migration Is Leading to Race Wars

Volatility and friction at a civilizational scale. Is this slow-motion demographic explosion an accident—or a plan? BY JOSUÉ MICHELS

THE STRESS AND CRUSHING weight of Britain's migrant crisis finally jolted on July 29, sending shock waves across the nation.

That day, the son of Rwandan immigrants brutally murdered three young girls in Southport. Word spread—some of it true, some of it false. Politicians and police rushed to shape the narrative. And the patience of many British citizens snapped.

In early August, anti-immigration protesters and pro-immigration counterprotestors faced off in Aldershot, Barnsley, Belfast, Brighton, Cardiff, Chatham, Leeds, Nottingham, Rotherham, Southampton and Weymouth. On some days, the numbers of total counterprotestors filling the streets in various cities reached an estimated 25,000. In Blackpool, Bristol, Lancaster, Plymouth, Stoke-on-Trent and Wath upon Dearne, protesters and counterprotestors clashed, smashing windows and throwing stones, bricks, glass and fireworks. Masses of men clad in black were seen in various cities: One mass was recorded running through the streets of Bolton chanting, "Allahu Akbar." The scene was similar in Middlesbrough, where large numbers of foreign young men filled streets, some of whom ganged up to attack lone white individuals. In other places, some of the dark-clad men were seen carrying machetes and other weapons. In Birmingham, hundreds of masked men, some armed, intimidated pedestrians and diners and struck motorists' vehicles. One reporter said, "[T]here wasn't a safe place for us to go for miles." One young male in a group of foreigners summarized the situation, "We're asserting dominance."

In response to this crisis, British authorities cracked down—not on lawless migrants, but disproportionately on anything perceived as racist—even online. Prime Minister Keir Starmer warned British protesters, "I guarantee you will regret taking part in this disorder, whether directly or those whipping up this action online." One 55-year-old woman was arrested for "false communication" and "publishing written material to stir up racial hatred." Two men in their 20s are in jail for advocating attacks on migrant hotels and mass deportation. Another man was arrested for claiming online that the murderer was a recently arrived asylum seeker.

Incidents like these are occurring in several countries: Immigrants are committing violent crimes, authorities are covering up details to minimize the connection to migration status or race, citizens are growing frustrated and angry, and authorities are attacking them rather than the criminals. And all the while, most importantly, the crush of unrestricted immigration continues to build. The evitable results are increasing racial tensions and social disorder.

These nation-destroying problems are a direct result of a leftist infatuation with mass migration and open borders.

Last year, roughly 2.5 million people illegally migrated to the United States. About 40,000 migrated to Great Britain, 30,000 to Canada, and a few hundred to Australia, equating to nearly 2.6 million total illegal immigrants—more than the population of Botswana. Since Joe Biden took the oath of office, illegal immigration into the U.S. has spiked 540 percent. Over the same period, it has risen 390 percent in Britain and 660 percent in Canada. (The numbers are more modest in Australia, which has a long history of accepting refugees via legal means.)

The dangerous effects of those misguided policies are clearer all the time. In the United States the problem is so obvious that Kamala Harris, the Democrat presidential nominee, has abruptly abandoned her criticisms of strict border policies and is rebranding herself as being "tough as nails" on immigration (article, page 14). But this is a PR stunt to curry votes: The left is deeply committed to encouraging migration from the Third World into the First World, even if it is illegal—and in some cases, even if it is violent.

Why? Why the push for such patently self-destructive policies?

Longtime Trumpet readers will be aware of editor in chief Gerald Flurry's focus on the destructive influence of former U.S. president Barack Obama. His book America Under Attack explains not just what this man has done, but WHY—the unseen spiritual cause behind his actions. This understanding is crucial to recognizing the true nature of this immigration crisis. Because Obama is probably the single most prominent spokesman for and legitimizer of radicalism—on sex, finance, morals, rule of law, and immigration—that has transformed the governments of the English-speaking world. Understanding his agenda on immigration and how it fits his broader ambitions provides profound insight into what is really taking place.

In our last Trumpet issue, Mr. Flurry made a bold statement about why Obama has pushed to the flow of migrants, particularly into the U.S., Britain, Australia and Canada: because he wants “to bring in SOLDIERS who can sow division, violence, confusion, terrorism, race war and civil war in America, as well as these other nations!” (theTrumpet.com/29905).

This may seem an audacious allegation. But study Obama's time as president and his years since stepping down from the most powerful office in the world. Even now, he exerts more global influence than almost any other single person. And he has consistently pushed for more migration into these countries even though it was and is causing massive and obvious harm. The racial violence and terrorism in these nations isn't an unintended effect of this effort. It is intentional.

Of course, this attack is much bigger than just one individual. The Bible reveals that there is a spiritual force behind it—and a spiritual solution.

The Migration Czar

Knowing that illegal immigration has caused clear harm to the English-speaking nations—and knowing that Obama has fought to sustain and increase illegal immigration—certain events over the past few years, and his influence on them, take on new significance.

In 2015, conflicts in Syria, Afghanistan, Iraq and other nations created an unprecedented refugee crisis involving millions of people. In a speech before the UN General Assembly, Barack Obama urged the world to resettle hundreds of thousands of them in their own lands. “This isn't just about what I can do as president,” he said. “Every single one of us—from citizens to NGOs [nongovernmental organizations]—can help refugees find safe haven.”

A global resettling movement began. Various companies such as Kickstarter, Instacart, Airbnb, Starbucks and Twitter responded to Obama's plea and set up ways for people to donate to NGOs or help refugees directly. Under the hashtag #AidRefugees, companies partnered with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and provided billions in humanitarian assistance.

This initiative, however, was not intended to help refugees find temporary asylum. It aimed to provide them permanent new homes.

In June 2016, the White House established the Partnership for Refugees to obtain resources from private companies for its migration programs. Since then, the partnership, now known as Tent Partnership for Refugees, has convinced hundreds of businesses to commit to hiring nearly a quarter-million refugees across a dozen countries.

Beyond directly financing the movement of refugees and recruiting companies to help, Obama also addressed world leaders directly. In September 2016, he hosted the Leaders' Summit on the Global Refugee Crisis, urging a global commitment to take in more refugees. “[J]ust as failure to act in the past—for example, by turning away Jews fleeing Nazi Germany—is a stain on our collective conscience,” he stated, “I believe history will judge us harshly if we do not rise to this moment.”

In this speech, Obama praised the work of the International Organization for Migration (IOM). Today, eight years later, an Obama trustee leads this organization: Amy Pope. When she took over, she called migration “a tool to unlock human potential to advance economic development.” This is a remarkable statement in light of the profound problems that mass migration is causing in many countries today. But it well represents the propaganda that is promoting what has become a truly well-oiled machine of moving refugees globally.

After Amy Pope met privately with Pope Francis to discuss this issue, she said, “He's an incredible voice, and at this moment in time when so much of the rhetoric around migration is so negative, having someone like [him] speak out so passionately and eloquently on the subject is incredibly important, not just for our organization but for millions of people around the world.”

The Catholic Church does more than merely help with kind words. As Vatican News reported, “Many Catholic aid organizations are assisting by providing emergency help and long-term settlement services for migrants and refugees.” The 19,000 staffers working in 171 countries led by Amy Pope are aided by Catholic organizations led by Pope Francis and dozens of other organizations to make this massive project feasible. They supply food on the journey, provide cash, help with visas, assist with transportation, and aid in finding jobs for millions of people worldwide.

But not every country wants to take refugees. That is why, at the 2016 summit, Mr. Obama introduced the Emergency Resettlement Country Joint Support Mechanism, a joint project of the IOM and the UN Refugee Agency that provides financial and technical aid to countries establishing or expanding refugee resettlement programs.

The specific aim of this initiative was to encourage countries in South America and elsewhere to accept asylum seekers from the Middle East, Africa and Asia, VOA News reported at the time. The next year, Chile started hosting its first Syrian refugees, supported by the UN. In ensuing years, more and more Middle Eastern migrants came to Latin America, and many of them illegally made their way into the U.S. during the Biden administration.

To understand this large-scale operation, we have to better understand Obama's vision.

Inspired by Mandela

At the memorial service of Nelson Mandela in 2013, Obama gave a eulogy in which he said that Mandela "stirred something in me." "It woke me up to my responsibilities to others and to myself, and it set me on an improbable journey that finds me here today."

Returning to South Africa in 2018, Obama stated that Mandela's "light shone so brightly, even from that narrow Robben Island cell, that in the late '70s he could inspire a young college student on the other side of the world to reexamine his own priorities, could make me consider the small role I might play in bending the arc of the world towards justice."

Who was Mandela when he was inspiring Obama? In 1964, 30 years before becoming South Africa's president in 1994, Mandela was charged with sabotage and plotting revolution. He headed up a terrorist organization responsible for thousands of deaths—most of it black-on-black crime. (Read "The Truth About Nelson Mandela" at theTrumpet.com/11238.) Though British rule had ended, Mandela believed he had to fight "institutionalized racism." "We had either to accept inferiority or fight against it by violence," he said. "We chose the latter."

Obama sought to replicate what happened in South Africa on a global scale. He saw the world as divided between camps of oppressor and oppressed. He traced the cause back to colonial rule, and became convinced that global change might require global violence.

Mandela was born in 1918. One hundred years later, Obama said: "There was no reason to believe that a young black boy at this time, in this place, could in any way alter history. After all, South Africa was then less than a decade removed from full British control. Already, laws were being codified to implement racial segregation and subjugation, the network of laws that would be known as apartheid. ... The dominant European powers, having ended a horrific world war just a few months after Madiba's birth, viewed this continent and its people primarily as spoils in a contest for territory and abundant natural resources and cheap labor. And the inferiority of the black race, an indifference towards black culture and interests and aspirations, was a given."

But Obama went much further than cherry-picking past flaws. He stated that despite new laws, constitutions and nice words, "[t]he previous structures of privilege and power and injustice and exploitation never completely went away." This elicited great applause from his South African audience.

Now Obama seeks to fully dislodge those "structures of privilege." It appears that part of his strategy is to resettle the "oppressed" to where they can violently overthrow the "oppressors," just as Mandela sought to do. This speech illuminated Obama's thinking on global politics, specifically migration.

"It is a plain fact that racial discrimination still exists in both the United States and South Africa," he said to cheers and applause. He then blamed "the accumulated disadvantages of years of institutionalized oppression" for "disparities in income, and in wealth, and in education, and in health, in personal safety, in access to credit."

Obama's speech ignored the fact that slavery was a societal sin long before the British Empire existed, and that the British Empire outlawed this evil practice and spilled blood and treasure to eradicate it. He ignored the fact that America and Britain have expanded freedoms and opportunities for millions around the world. Instead, he claimed America's and Britain's rise came at the expense of the rest of the world and is the source of the world's injustices. That is an ABSOLUTE LIE.

"Every generation has the opportunity to remake the world," he said. He quoted Mandela: "Young people are capable, when aroused, of bringing down the towers of oppression and raising the banners of freedom," then said, "Now is a good time to be aroused. Now is a good time to be fired up."

Using the world's most powerful office, Obama aroused people to tear down civilization and "remake the world." That world, in the modern era, has been defined by American and British values.

To Britain: Embrace Immigration!

What has Obama's agenda been for Britain, particularly regarding immigration?

In 2011, he became the first U.S. president to address the British Parliament at Westminster Hall. "Unlike most countries in the world, we do not define citizenship based on race or ethnicity," he stated. "Yes, our diversity can lead to tension. And throughout our history there have been heated debates about immigration and assimilation in both of our countries. But even as these debates can be difficult, we fundamentally recognize that our patchwork heritage is an enormous strength [T]hat it's possible for the sons and daughters of former colonies to sit here as members of this great Parliament, and for the grandson of a Kenyan who served as a cook in the British Army to stand before you as president of the United States."

According to the Times, Obama's grandfather Hussein Onyango Obama served with the British Army in Burma during World War II, returned to Kenya serving as a military cook, developed a deep-seated resentment toward the British, and started to cooperate with the Kikuyu Central Association, which allegedly took oaths to kill white settlers—from which the bloody Mau Mau revolt evolved. Barack Obama Sr., Onyango's son and the president's father, shared the same resentments. Barack Obama's memoir Dreams From My Father shows that the dreams of revolt live on in the grandson.

Obama's speech before Parliament revolved around urging the British to embrace immigration. At one time, Britain exported its culture in hopes of bringing about a better world. Mr. Obama flipped this notion on its head, claiming that a better Britain would emerge if it absorbed nonwhite cultures. Evidence in Britain loudly testifies to the contrary.

The Heritage Foundation observed, “Barack Obama epitomizes the anti-Brexit globalist liberal elite who openly sneer at the defense of borders, nation states and the fight against supranationalism.” Obama supports open borders because they permanently transform British society. He promotes “supranationalism” because it allows unelected authorities to dictate what otherwise independent countries could decide.

In April 2016, just weeks before Britain’s Brexit referendum, Obama visited Downing Street. During his trip, one reporter confronted him about interfering in Britain’s affairs, stating, “America would not accept the levels of immigration from Mexico that we have to accept from the EU.” Obama responded by threatening that if Britain left the EU, it would go to “the back of the queue” for trade deals.

The tables had indeed turned: The grandson of a Kenyan cook in the British Army threatened the former colonial power with economic ruin for not submitting to supranational government.

Seizing on migration in Britain was especially effective—and destructive. The issue was already a problem before Obama came along. In 2004, 10 new member states, mostly poorer countries, joined the European Union. Most member nations closed their borders to these new member states to protect their own workers. Britain was one of only three nations that threw its borders wide open. Andrew Neather, a speechwriter for Tony Blair and other senior Labour leaders, said his party had a “deliberate policy ... to open up the UK to mass migration” and wanted to “rub the right’s nose in diversity.”

But Labour was voted out. Britain left the European Union. Migration was a major factor in both events. Yet migration didn’t just continue—it grew. In 2023, net migration was nearly 700,000 (the proportional number in the U.S. would be 3.4 million). One in five elementary schoolchildren doesn’t speak English as a first language. In 2,000 schools, the majority don’t speak English as a first language; and in 200 schools, 90 percent do not. London is essentially a foreign city. Only one third of its citizens identify as “White: English, Welsh, Scottish, Northern Irish or British.” Only a quarter of the children born in the city are white British.

Britain’s current leaders have close ties with Obama and appear cut from the same cloth. In 2021, Obama started holding discussions with Sir Keir Starmer and Shadow Foreign Secretary David Lammy on how to defeat Conservatives. Lammy, now the UK’s foreign secretary under Starmer, has known Obama for 20 years and shares many of his views. In September 2023, Starmer told Politico’s Power Play podcast that Obama was the U.S. president he spoke to “most frequently” and said he “helps me think about how we might approach some of the decisions we might have to take if we do win that election.”

This past March, Obama visited Starmer. On July 4, Starmer’s Labour Party won a supermajority in Parliament. Business Insider partially credited Mr. Obama for Starmer’s victory.

It was just weeks later that Britain’s immigration problem exploded in violence. The British expressed profound frustration over the nation’s worsening two-tiered justice system: The Starmer government arrested concerned citizens who shared “hateful” content online—while Muslims roamed the streets with machetes.

To Canada: More Diversity!

Prime Minister Starmer is also friends with Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, another close confidant of Obama’s. Together they are building a web of radical politicians governing these English-speaking nations.

The Canadian government states that “racial tensions have existed in Canada since it was colonized” and that “various racial, religious and sexual minority groups in Canada are increasingly experiencing hate crimes.” The government’s solution is simple: more diversity.

Canada’s multiculturalist policies started in the 1970s with Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau. They greatly expanded in 2015 under his son Justin Trudeau, who declared Canada to be the “first post-national state” and said, “[T]here is no core identity, no mainstream in Canada.” This was a clear rejection of ties to the British crown, traditional religious values, national history and culture—and it was encouraged by Obama.

To get Justin Trudeau elected, his chief adviser worked with the campaign team of Barack Obama to establish an “Obama pattern” of elections. Ever since, this pattern has helped put leftists in power around the world. Barack Obama publicly endorsed Trudeau, met with him repeatedly once he was in power, and continue his support even after leaving the White House. Mr. Flurry wrote in our September issue, “With China’s help—and especially with the help of Satan’s power—Obama has helped to make Trudeau dictator of Canada.”

One of the most notable ways Trudeau continues Obama’s legacy is through his immigration policy. In 2016, Obama gave a speech to the Canadian Parliament, where again and again, he implored them to embrace diversity—from “reconciling” with Canada’s First Nations to migrants from around the world to Canada’s lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people. Watch this speech or read a transcript, and you will better understand that country’s soaring immigration numbers. But the more diversity Canada embraces, the more clashes it invites—most recently between Canada’s LGBT people and its Muslim immigrants.

Again and again, Obama pleaded with Parliament: “When refugees escape barrel bombs and torture, and migrants cross deserts and seas seeking a better life, we cannot simply look the other way. We certainly can't label as possible terrorists vulnerable people who are fleeing terrorists." He ended his speech by stating, "How fortunate, how privileged we are to have the opportunity to now, ourselves, build this world anew." The truth is that to build anew, you have to tear down the old.

In the years since, Canada has imported an enormous number of refugees and other migrants. In 2022 alone, Canada's population jumped by over a million. In just three months from July to September last year, it jumped by 430,000. Ninety-six percent of this growth came from immigration.

To Australia: Open Your Borders!

Obama's reverse-colonization agenda has also been active in Australia.

Speaking to the Australian Parliament in 2011, Obama stated: "I want to acknowledge the original inhabitants of this land, and one of the world's oldest continuous cultures, the First Australians." He later added, "It's the spirit of progress in America which allows me to stand before you today, as president of the United States. And it's the spirit I'll see later today when I become the first U.S. president to visit the Northern Territory, where I'll meet the Traditional Owners of the Land."

Mr. Obama put Australia's colonial past at center stage, then implored the parliamentarians to atone for their past by opening their borders. "[W]e are citizens who live by a common creed: No matter who you are, no matter what you look like, everyone deserves a fair chance; everyone deserves a fair go. Of course, progress in our society has not always come without tensions, or struggles to overcome a painful past." He credited the "spirit of progress" when stating, "It's why the people took to the streets—from Delhi to Seoul, from Manila to Jakarta—to throw off colonialism and dictatorship and build some of the world's largest democracies."

After leaving office, Obama visited Sydney in 2018 to meet again with Australian Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull. Last year, he visited again to meet with Prime Minister Anthony Albanese—and soon after that meeting, about 400,000 immigrants flooded the country. Australia has only 25 million people; a proportional influx into the U.S. would be 5.4 million migrants. And the numbers are only going up.

Such "coincidences" surrounding the former president are so common that American Thinker wrote: "Although Obama works hard to look like he's not directly involved in the things he's engaged in, anyone who has followed the machinations of the stealthy socialist knows that there are no coincidences regarding the former president."

The International Organization for Migration, largely enabled by Obama, offers special help for migrants to Australia. The organization's website says the IOM "has a unique package for migrants resettling to Australia that offers a wide range of assistance. It includes special airfares with enhanced conditions and interest-free loans available for covering ticket costs for the Global Special Humanitarian visa holders."

Obama implored Australia's Parliament to atone for their past by opening their borders.

An Attack on the Empire

Mr. Flurry has compared Barack Obama with Antiochus IV Epiphanes, a Seleucid king who obtained rule in Palestine in 176 B.C. through deceit and flattery. This man sought to destroy all that Judah stood for. Many Bible commentators recognize that Daniel 8 revolves around this Antiochus, but they fail to understand that the prophecy is dual and primarily for the end time.

The Bible reveals that in the "latter days," an Antiochus-type would rise and seek to eradicate "the name of Israel" (2 Kings 14:26-27). "Israel" in biblical prophecy refers to the modern nations of Britain and America. (Request a free copy of The United States and Britain in Prophecy, by Herbert W. Armstrong.)

Genesis 49 prophesies that Joseph would be "a fruitful bough that runs over the wall." This is a picture of Britain and America as colonizing peoples. As Mr. Armstrong explained, "Beginning in 1800 these two little nations began to sprout and to grow into vast national riches and power such as no people ever possessed. Soon Britain's Empire spread around the world, until the sun never set upon her possessions. Canada, Australia and South Africa were given dominion status—made free and independent nations, ruling themselves independent of England—a company, or commonwealth of nations joined together, not by legal government but solely by the throne of David!"

Just as America and Britain descended from ancient Israel, the British throne has been, until recently, the continuation of the royal throne of David.

The Bible shows that IT WAS BY GOD'S DESIGN THAT THE BRITISH EMPIRE ROSE TO POWER.

Modern-day Britain, however, has refused to be the exemplary nation that God wanted it to be. Thus, Hosea 7:9 prophesies, "Strangers have devoured his strength." Instead of seeking God and exporting His culture, Britain has mixed itself with the cultures of this world, a world deeply influenced and deceived by the devil (2 Corinthians 4:4).

The Bible also exposes the unseen spiritual cause for this hatred toward "the name of Israel." The ultimate source is Satan the devil, who has deceived the whole world (Revelation 12:9). He is the author of the unique hatred in the world toward the British Empire.

While God won't allow Satan to blot out Israel, He will use the coming suffering to lead them to repentance. While the Bible specifically reveals that a civil war is imminent, it also reveals that God is ultimately in control.

Migrant Soldiers

Following the riots in Britain, Elon Musk warned that civil war would be "inevitable." The British government and media greatly criticized him for this statement. But the tensions caused by the flood of foreigners into these countries are growing steadily, and some politicians are actively encouraging them.

The greatest danger in large influxes of migrants has nothing to do with skin color or nationality but with dangerous ideologies. Radical Islam is an example. The Islamic text of the Koran views Muslims in opposition to Jewish and Christian neighbors. Instead of promoting peace, this text has been used by radical preachers to stir hatred. While terrorists' motivations may vary, many see themselves in a military campaign for a religious quest. Anyone can see that importing people who hate Western culture and religion will lead to tension at best, violent clashes at worst.

A disproportionate number of migrants entering the English-speaking countries are military-age, single men—men who are ready to fight. Unbeknownst to Musk and others, Barack Obama plans to use these men to stir up the “inevitable.”

In that Trumpet article last month, Mr. Flurry wrote: “Millions are pouring over the borders of Australia, Canada, Britain and the United States. And so many of them are young, fit, military-age males from all over the world, including enemy nations of America, like China! These aliens are attacking America by trafficking drugs, smuggling children and sex slaves, perpetrating rape and murder. Many conservatives believe the plan is to make Democrat voters out of all these illegal immigrants. But OBAMA HAS ANOTHER PLAN: to bring in SOLDIERS who can sow division, violence, confusion, terrorism, race war and civil war in America, as well as these other nations! That is the known plan of the Communists, and many of those helping him are Communist.”

Obama has a history of community organizing—and links to the Black Lives Matter protests, the Free Palestine protests and others that have turned violent and fundamentally changed our society. Through the Obama Foundation, he inspires worldwide “protests for equality and justice.”

The outcome has been prophesied.

Addressing the modern descendants of Israel, Ezekiel 5:12 reveals: “A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee” This is part of the “great tribulation” that Jesus Christ prophesied of in Matthew 24:21.

Mr. Flurry explains in his free book Ezekiel—The End-Time Prophet: “The word pestilence just means destruction or death One definition of the root word is ‘to lay snares, to plot against, to destroy.’ So this pestilence could be a plague of violence or burning—not necessarily a physical disease at all!”

Current trends are laying the foundation for the fulfillment of this horrifying prophecy. Cities across America, Australia, Britain, Canada and South Africa are about to go up in flames.

Many modern protest movements are stirred up over social media, enhanced by algorithms that promote them. As explained in America Under Attack, Obama used social media to stir the Arab Spring. He also advises the White House and business and global leaders about artificial intelligence—a tool, coupled with social media, that can be used to further radicalize and mobilize people online. The trigger for widespread unrest is more or less in his hands.

The Bible reveals that outside forces will seek to finish what Obama has started. Mr. Flurry explains: “As the economy grows worse, besieged by foreign powers, the rioters will burn more and more—because God’s wrath is upon us!” Tragically, these hatreds are prophesied to explode into the deadliest civil war in history.

Witnessing the internal division and strife within the English-speaking peoples, foreign powers are about to exploit the anarchy. They will enflame and exacerbate the riots and burning.

We must not forget that these events will occur because God’s wrath is upon us! His punishment is precisely measured to bring our world to repentance!

It was God who gave the blessings our nations have enjoyed, in order to keep His promises to Abraham and his descendants. It was because of God’s mercy that the world has enjoyed relative peace brought about by the American and British peoples. And it will be God once again who brings everlasting peace. Only He can do that!

God has a marvelous future for those willing to heed His message. He wants to bring far greater blessings to the world than the British Empire ever enjoyed. He will solve the world’s injustices and unite nations and races under one world government, set up by Jesus Christ.

We do not need more human beings trying to solve the world’s injustices. What we need is God’s divine intervention. Thankfully, God’s coming everlasting rule is sure! (Isaiah 9:6-7). ■

DONALD TRUMP IS NOT FIGHTING a candidate: He’s fighting a machine. The past few months have exposed this fact to the world.

We live in extremely wild times. Let’s start with the state of American presidential politics right now and then trace it back. Right now, Kamala Harris is the epicenter of “Kamala-mania.” She is the savior of the Democratic Party and the future of the country. But just a couple of months ago, she was the unpopular, underqualified sidekick to Joe Biden, the unpopular, underpowered sidekick to Barack Obama. As far as actual governing experience, she was known mainly for being delegated the border crisis.

It has been three years Biden appointed Kamala as his “border czar,” yet neither Biden nor Kamala has taken meaningful action to stop the flow of illegal aliens. In fact, their administration has flown immigrants to cities in the interior of the U.S. to clear out room for more at the border. Yet, you would never know this if your only exposure to American news

The Beatification of the 'Border Czar'

From 2020 to 2024, the overall strategy of the radical leftists has been the same: a permanent coup. BY STEPHEN FLURRY was Democratic National Convention speeches.

"For 20 years, Mayor Harris has been tough as nails when it comes to securing our border," Democrat Sen. Chris Murphy told conference attendees on August 20. "When she was the California prosecutor, she went after drug smugglers, human traffickers—she put 100 gang members away in a sweep."

Despite Murphy's praise, however, Kamala's record shows that she is a political chameleon. When it suits her career ambitions to be hard on crime, she can harden her resolve. When it suits her ambitions to be soft on crime, she is soft. Back when she was the district attorney of San Francisco, it was in her interest to bring down the city's skyrocketing murder rate. After she became vice president, the Obama alumni surrounding her wanted more illegal immigrants in this country. So when Biden tasked her with securing the border, she turned a blind eye to the crisis.

It's hard to believe Americans would fall for propaganda that Harris is "tough as nails," but there are indeed millions of people preparing to cast a ballot for her in hopes that she will end the existential crisis on America's southern border. Wild times, indeed!

Media Roller Coaster

This is the same Kamala Harris whose rise in California politics was infamously less than respectable, the same Kamala Harris who was polling at about 3 percent support from Democrats and who quit the 2020 presidential campaign before even the first Democratic primary was held. In 2024, even when Joe Biden's mental decline was well known, Harris was not put forth as the candidate and won zero votes from Democratic primary voters. Yet now she is the candidate.

Why? Not because she campaigned, held press conferences and interviews, answered challenging questions from citizens and journalists, and convinced Americans in general—or even registered Democrats specifically—of her vision and leadership ability. It was because of the machine and the radical elites at its controls.

It was an amazing spectacle: The enormous machinations of leftist politics and media pivoted instantly to Kamala. After Biden dropped out, it took less than 90 minutes for Bill and Hillary Clinton to endorse Harris. Obama waited a few days but then made a stilted telephone call to endorse her. Once that happened, the regime media instantly spun into high gear.

With such an abrupt and suspect change of direction, you would have expected at least some differences of opinion and some debate within the Democratic Party. Yet how many voices in leftist politics and media did you hear supporting, debating the merits of, or even talking about any other Democrat than "Kamala"?

The very same news organizations that had informed us that "Harris is the border czar" yet failed to reduce migration suddenly told us that "Harris was never the border czar" yet has been stricter on migration than Donald Trump. People who knew that Harris was never a serious presidential candidate suddenly told us that Harris is the most exciting presidential candidate possible.

It was a tour de force by the radical political and media elites. When you see the spectacle and hear the hype for Kamala, you are seeing a massive left-wing political-media deception complex in action. And although he is beginning to lose his power, there is still one elite among them to watch heading into this election: Barack Hussein Obama.

From 2020 to 2024

Can the media elites artificially spin someone all the way from irrelevance into the White House? They have done it before.

The introduction to my father's book America Under Attack is titled "The 'Swooning' Media." He zeroes in on the many incidents of reporters whose behavior changed dramatically when they were near Obama. For years now, this man has exerted power on American politics that is highly abnormal!

After Obama's endorsement, the media began working in overdrive to turn an unpopular candidate into a trendy, woke saint. Kamala is an African-Indian-American heroine role model for little girls who is not responsible for the border yet tough on the border, wonderfully woke, an inspiration of joy, intelligent, capable, ruthless, compassionate, pragmatic, formidable, fabulous-looking and the only person who can beat Donald Trump.

Never has it been so clear that the American media's reporting is a deliberate effort to alter past, current and especially future reality by repeating lies so often the people actually start to doubt reality.

“The manufactured enthusiasm for Kamala Harris has begun, and the first 48 hours of the marketing blitz are exactly as we should expect,” wrote Mark Bradman at Conservative Treehouse. “The next few months are going to be ridiculous at a level beyond the Light-bringer [Barack Obama]. Fortunately, a person who was perhaps not paying attention in ’07 and ’08 will now get to witness something they missed before, and the ears might not be as deaf as they were 16 years ago” (July 24).

Mental Contortion

In addition to lying about Kamala’s popularity and role in the border crisis, the media is also lying about Kamala defending “democracy.” For years now, Democrats have branded themselves as “saving democracy,” making the lie so big and so bold and backed with so much power that people are afraid to challenge it.

Democrats are the party of continuously transferring power over your life out of your hands and into the hands of the central government, of constantly increasing government dependency, and—especially recently—of unaccountable bureaucracy, heavy regulation, gun confiscation, Freedom of Information denials, secret proceedings, spying, snitching, lawfare, collusion, censorship, propaganda, division over sex and sexuality, division over race, illegal immigration, importation of noncitizens, constitutional “flexibility,” and, importantly, election irregularities.

It is that party that took Joe Biden from the basement during unprecedented government lockdowns and installed him as president in 2020. Now it is working to install, without a single primary vote, Kamala Harris in 2024. When Joe Biden caved in and withdrew from the race this summer, he said he was doing it to stop Donald Trump and save democracy.

If you can do the mental contortion, this means that the candidate who supposedly beat Donald Trump and won the presidency fairly with 81 million votes will now “save democracy” not by convincing Americans to vote for him again, but by quitting so Democrat elites can install someone who has never won any votes. Biden, Democrat elites and Democrats in the media are trying everything—including smears, lawfare, and trashing their credibility to manufacture “Kamala-mania”—to block the will of tens of millions of Americans who just want a primaries and the will of millions of Democrat voters. The Democratic Party is anything but democratic!

Yet not only will they keep the name, they will cling to the narrative that they are “saving democracy.”

If you are reminded of George Orwell’s dystopian novel 1984, you are not the only one. That book features a powerful and all-too-familiar government propaganda agency convincing a weak and ignorant populace that not only is their ally their enemy, but it always has been.

War in ’24

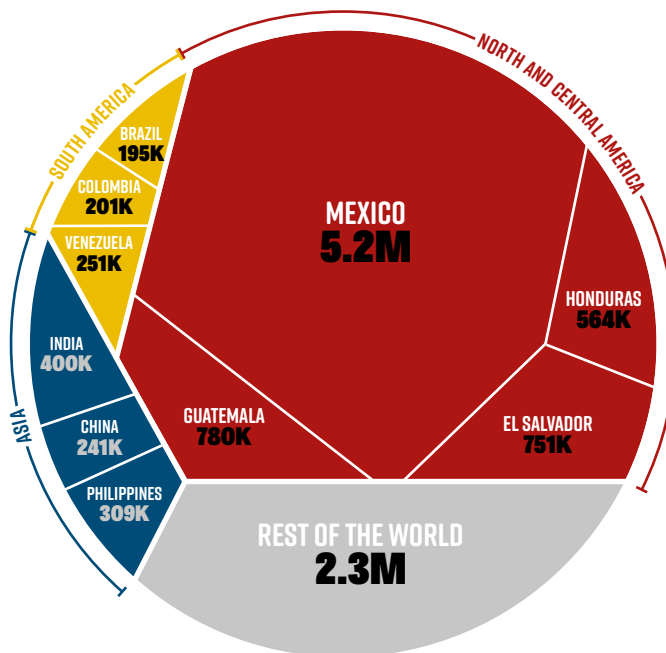

In November, America’s 72 million registered Democrats may get a chance to weigh in on whether they prefer Harris or Trump, but only their elites, particularly Obama, had any say on pushing Biden out and pushing his replacement in. With such Orwellian moves being made, you can see why Democrats are relying so heavily on the “Kamala-mania” leftist newsmedia fiction. It’s their attempt to make what they have done palatable—and make Kamala Harris beating Donald Trump in the presidential election anywhere close to plausible.

The political-media complex is priming Americans for election cheating and another election steal by convincing them now that the woman no one voted for is the most popular presidential candidate possible.

Many political commentators are waking up to the fact that America is on the verge of civil war. A recently released video from an event in February shows Rep. Jamie Raskin asserting that if the Supreme Court does not block Donald Trump from office, he and other members of Congress will do it. You read that right! Raskin is so concerned about American “democracy” that if the American people decide to elect Donald Trump as president, he is willing to make Kamala the president via congressional vote instead. This is a dangerously unlawful, win-at-any-cost mentality.

WHERE ARE AMERICA'S 11.2 M UNAUTHORIZED IMMIGRANTS FROM?

free and fair election where they can vote for the candidate of their choice.

Yet this is the party that had the boldness to plaster the word “freedom” in huge letters all over their national convention in August and to shout about how they are saving democracy. This is the convention where, supposedly, Democrats pick their candidate by majority will—which would be an especially good application of “democracy” when the incumbent bows out shortly beforehand. But Democrat elites blocked that from happening, changing party rules to appoint Harris as nominee weeks ahead of time, invalidating the entire democratic exercise of its own presidential

M. D. Kittle at the Federalist wrote, “In a tinderbox election year seared by an assassination attempt against the GOP’s presidential candidate, Raskin’s threatening rhetoric now seems more like the release of the whirlwind than ever” (August 6). This is absolutely right!

It is interesting that Kittle references the July 13 assassination attempt. For one, that dramatic event was quickly and unnaturally subdued by media elites to minimize any positive effect for Donald Trump. But there is another reason for distracting people away from the attempted murder. There is evidence not only that the Secret Service left Mr. Trump almost completely vulnerable and that the FBI is handling the investigation in suspicious ways, but also that people in both agencies may even have helped perpetrate the shooting!

If that bullet had been just half an inch to the right, America would almost certainly have plunged into civil war. But now it’s “yesterday’s news.” Why? Because Democrats, many of whom wish that shot had been fatal, don’t want the American people to examine what happened.

With this context in mind, the fact that Biden (or someone in Biden’s office) announced that he was quitting the race just hours before the congressional hearing on the assassination attempt started might not be coincidence. Since Obama was the one to force Biden’s withdrawal, his withdrawal was probably announced exactly when Obama thought best. This timing pulled people’s attention away from the assassination attempt.

Many Democrats would love to see Trump dead. Many have said as much, and many more are more guarded about it. Obama and others may have thought Biden had a chance of winning if Trump were dead. But now they are in their fallback position of trying to convince America that Kamala Harris is, if not a good leader, at least massively popular, and any election irregularities in 2024 can be ignored, like they were in 2020.

The Democrat strategy at this point is permanent coup.

When Trump won the election in 2016, “not my president” protests rocked the nation for weeks. This will undoubtedly happen again if the election is anywhere near close. And today, there are millions of illegal aliens in America who were not here in 2016, many of whom could be used to cast votes for Democrats. These illegals, some of whom are poor people desperate to stay in America, and some of whom are terrorists and agents of foreign governments could face the choice of deportation versus war.

Prepare for chaos! As wild as this year has been so far, the rest of the year will be more so.

It has never been clearer that someone other than Joe Biden controls the regime. Obama still yields tremendous power, but the last-minute shift from Biden to Kamala is an indication that his grip on power is slipping. He may become more desperate and more violent as he fights to hold on. He told delegates at the Democratic National Convention in his home city, Chicago, on August 20, “Now it is up to all of us to fight for the America we believe in. And make no mistake, it will be a fight.”

Make no mistake.

Temporary Resurgence

A perfect storm is brewing in America. As a young man at Occidental College, Obama joined the Democratic Socialist Alliance, a Marxist-socialist fellowship

Obama and others may have thought Biden had a chance of winning if Trump were dead. But now they are in their fallback position.

founded by Dr. John Drew, a conservative political scientist who has since repudiated Marxism. In those days, Obama advocated for a violent revolution in America. But other Marxists convinced him it was better to infiltrate the system from the inside. Obama heeded their words and has had great success slowly changing America into a socialist state. But if Trump reverses his gradual revolution, Obama may revert to his old strategy.

A prophecy in Ezekiel 5:12 reveals that one third of the population of end-time Israel, primarily the United States, Britain and the Jewish nation in the Middle East, will die from the pestilence, famine and violence that will result from civil war. This means violence is coming. The Biden administration has let more than 8 million illegal immigrants into America who could participate in violent race riots against the candidate who wants to defend America’s southern border. So God will have to intervene to temporarily save the nation.

Another prophecy in Amos 7 states that God will pass by America one last time to give people a final chance to repent of their terrible sins. “And the Lord said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more” (verse 8).

This prophecy is why we have consistently insisted that President Trump will return to power. We do not know exactly how this will unfold, yet it will likely involve some literal fighting. A prophecy in 2 Kings 14:26-28 talks about an end-time type of King Jeroboam II warring to recover something stolen from him, and the Obama-Biden-Harris regime has shown that it does not surrender power easily, even when people vote against them. Keep watching the rallies Mr. Trump is holding around the nation, because a great red wave is indeed going to sweep America after a trying time of conflict! But this resurgence will be only a temporary reprieve before America’s prophesied destruction if people do not repent. ■

Request Gerald Flurry’s book America Under Attack. It was published when the radical left said Trump was finished and mainstream Republicans were looking for a replacement candidate. Yet it predicts Trump will fight his way back into the White House. Why? The answer is stunning.

1 Book a flight to Ecuador.

Ecuador's entry requirements allow migrants in from Armenia, Bangladesh, China, Cuba, Haiti, India, Iran, Lebanon, Peru, Russia, Turkey, Uzbekistan, Venezuela and over 100 other nations. From Ecuador, they begin the arduous 130-mile journey to the border mountain city of Tulcán on the Ecuador-Colombia border.

2 Get equipped by the International Organization for Migration.

At a refugee camp in Tulcán, the United Nations-affiliated International Organization for Migration distributes food, health care, legal counsel and maps denoting migration-related organizations and migration paths to the U.S. border.

◀ A Venezuelan migrant receives Red Cross aid on a highway in Cucuta, Colombia.

12 Register to vote.

Under U.S. law, only citizens can vote in federal elections. Yet local election officials often neglect to require a voter's proof of citizenship. A May study by Just the Facts estimates that 10 to 27 percent of noncitizen adults in the U.S. are now illegally registered to vote, equating to 2 million to 5 million illegal voters in America, potentially enough to change the outcome of a national election.

Migrants wait to board a U.S. Border Patrol bus to be taken for processing after crossing the border near Yuma, Arizona. ▼

10 Fly into the interior of the United States.

Customs and Border Protection facilities along the border are over-capacity, so the government constantly buses and flies illegal aliens into the interior of the country. The U.S. Air Force is using passenger aircraft to transport illegal immigrants to cities and towns throughout the U.S.

Migrants on the banks of the Rio Grande are directed by a national guardsman to a Border Patrol processing area. ▶

11 Collect government benefits.

Migrants released into the interior are unable to work legally until six months after they have filed a claim for asylum, so the U.S. government often turns them—and hundreds of millions of dollars in funding ($641 million this year)—over to charities and other nongovernmental organizations.

Become an Illegal Alien in 12 Steps

A groundbreaking documentary released on January 16 exposes the entire illegal alien pipeline from Quito, Ecuador, to the United States border, actively facilitated by the United Nations and the current leaders of the United States.

9 Cross into the United States.

Once in northern Mexico, it is easy for migrants to cross into the United States. Hardened criminals and foreign agents may attempt to avoid capture by the U.S. Border Patrol, but many others simply surrender and apply for asylum. There are more than 2 million pending asylum cases, with wait times of up to seven years. President Donald Trump made migrants wait in Mexico. The Biden-Harris regime allows them to remain in the United States.

3 Cross into Colombia.

Journeying 55 miles across the poorly guarded Ecuador-Colombia border brings them to Pasto, where they will find camping spots for the poor and well-appointed hotels for the wealthy Chinese immigrants. Whether rich or poor, the UN helps them across Colombia to the coastal border town of Necocli.

◀ Migrants depart a base camp at Las Tekas, Colombia, before entering the jungle of the infamous Darién Gap.

4 Buy camping gear.

Much of the Necocli economy is devoted to selling boots and camping gear to migrants. And again, the International Organization for Migration is here to help the maximum number of people cross from Colombia into Panama through the Darién Gap.

◀ Migrants cross the Darién Gap, en route to Panama.

5 Cross the Darién Gap.

The five-day journey through the Darién Gap means not only negotiating a dense, roadless jungle but also falling under the control of the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia, a paramilitary group, and the Gulf Clan, Colombia's largest drug cartel. Some are able to pay smugglers to take them by boat from Necocli to Carreto, Panama.

6 Charter a bus to Mexico.

Some migrants do not survive to this point. Those who do, meet up with the International Organization for Migration again in Panamanian refugee camps. The IOM—along with the Red Cross, the UN International Children's Emergency Fund and other groups—puts migrants on buses bound for Guatemala and then the Mexico border. Once the UN gets migrants to Tecun Uman, Guatemala, they can pay the Sinaloa Drug Cartel $120 per person to smuggle them across the border into Mexico.

◀ A migrant caravan walks into the interior of Mexico after crossing the Guatemalan border.

8 Board the Train of Death.

After passing through Mexico City, migrants gather around the railway stops of the Tren de la Muerte (Train of Death). Drug cartel-affiliated conductors often let migrants clamber aboard at night—and pay the cartel $500 for the privilege to risk falling and losing their limbs or their lives. But the Tren de la Muerte has brought the survivors to the U.S. border by the millions.

7 Join a migrant caravan.

In Mexico, migrants join one of the caravans (where people chant pro-Democratic Party slogans to pass the time). These are organized by Pueblo Sin Fronteras (People Without Borders), an advocacy group that protests U.S. border security policies in addition to helping migrants make the 670-mile trek from Tecun Uman to Mexico City.

NUCLEAR PROLIFERATION: Will Humanity Survive?

Not only are nuclear weapons increasing in number and power, so too are madmen willing to use them.

BY GERALD FLURRY

NUCLEAR WEAPONS are multiplying. Even worse, our world is increasingly ruled by madmen who are eager to use them. The number one problem today is that of human survival—and it is growing by the day.

Yet commentators and journalists rarely discuss this subject. It is clearly the most important issue we could be discussing, yet we ignore it.

Why is that? A big reason is that neither world leaders nor scientists nor religious people have an answer.

But there is an answer.

An Existential Problem

The world spent an estimated $92 billion on nuclear weapons last year, up more than 10 percent from the previous year. This means the world spent about $2,900 per second on nuclear weapons! These numbers are staggering.

Where is this leading? What does it mean for our lives? What kind of a future do our children have?

If just one of these nuclear bombs drops on a city, it would cause an utter catastrophe and trigger an even more horrific nuclear war. The consequences are hard to fathom. That's why our media and politicians are constantly preoccupied with non-issues. THEY ARE WILLINGLY BLIND TO THIS DANGEROUS REALITY!

If you look at who is acquiring nuclear weapons today, you would have to agree that there is no issue more important, dangerous and urgent to human survival than this. I tell you, WE CANNOT AFFORD TO NOT DISCUSS THIS.

Who Has These Weapons?

China is quickly expanding its nuclear stockpile, building an estimated 100 nuclear warheads every year! Their goal is to have a substantially larger and more advanced nuclear arsenal than the United States in the coming two decades, as the Heritage Foundation explained.

That is horrifying! China is ruled by a dictator, General Secretary of the Chinese Communist Party Xi Jinping, who enslaves his own people, commits genocide on an ethnic minority, threatens to invade Taiwan, and intrudes on neighboring countries. It is even preparing to wage war against the U.S.! Nukes in the hand of this man are a ticking time bomb!

But he isn't even the greatest danger to world peace.

Russia has more nuclear bombs, is allied with China and ruled by an even more ruthless dictator: President Vladimir Putin. As I explain in my booklet The Prophesied 'Prince of Russia,' the Bible prophesies that this man will be responsible for more deaths than any leader in human history! Since I wrote that booklet, Putin has invaded Ukraine and committed many other atrocities. But that is just the beginning. This man is certain to use nuclear weapons!

Russia and China are also allied with North Korea, which is currently ruled by a highly erratic dictator: Kim Jong-un.

North Korea has demonstrated its capacity to use its nuclear weapons in a most dangerous way. It has launched intercontinental ballistic missiles that can reach all American cities! Most concerning, as the late Charles Krauthammer wrote in April 2017, is that "North Korea's regime is bizarre in the extreme, a hermit kingdom run by a weird, utterly ruthless and highly erratic god-king. You can't count on Caligula. The regime is savage and cult-like; its people, robotic."

What will Kim Jong-un do with all those nuclear weapons at his disposal? Some notable experts, like former CIA analyst Robert L. Carlin and nuclear scientist Siegfried S. Hecker, think he will go to war. Others disagree, but truly, none of these experts know because of the unpredictable nature of this "erratic god-king"!

China has quite a lot of control over North Korea. But if you look at China's goals, this isn't comforting news.

Moreover, Kim Jong-un shares his nuclear power with Iran, the world's number one terrorist-sponsoring nation. And Iran has a religious leader even more “bizarre in the extreme” than his North Korean counterpart: Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei. He believes that a nuclear catastrophe would hasten the coming of his messiah!

Iran's fanatical regime has repeatedly threatened to wipe Israel from the map and to destroy Europe and the U.S. as well. If left unrestrained, they will most certainly use nuclear weapons once they have enough of them to achieve their goals.

Iran and North Korea have a worse problem in some ways than any other nation in this world. They are ruled by people who relish the prospect of a nuclear war! This is the horrifying world that you and I live in.

While it is frightening enough to consider the danger of nuclear weapons in the hands of madmen, the danger emanating from the heart of Europe needs to equally concern us.

A lot of the increased nuclear weapons spending last year was due to expensive upgrades to America's nuclear weapons stationed in Germany, Italy and other European countries. America is going to regret doing that!

Italy and Germany were ruled by madmen in the past century. Revelation 17 shows that these madmen were the sixth head of a dreadful beast that will rise once more. Europe is about to be ruled by 10 kings, or madmen, who believe it will be their RIGHT to conquer nations! In fact, Revelation 13 reveals that they will worship the dragon, Satan the devil, and be empowered by him. That is the highest form of insanity!

This is far too big a problem for any man or group of men to solve. It is a horrifying reality that we are heading into the worst suffering ever on this planet!

The only way to face this and solve it is by looking to God. There is a real solution! God gives it to us in the Bible, if we'll just listen to and submit to Him.

Editing God's Word

Some people are recognizing that not only nations but humanity itself needs help from a higher power. During a recent crisis, for example, several ministers pointed to answers in a certain passage of the Bible. But they left something out. And what they left out is the REASON we cannot solve this number one problem and just ignore it instead!

“If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (2 Chronicles 7:13-14). That is the full, unedited passage from the Bible.

Those ministers who were saying that we need to appeal to God for help did quote this part: “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face.” They also quoted this part: “then will I hear from heaven, and will heal their land.” This is what Mike Pence did in his 2016 campaign speeches: He took his vice presidential oath of office on Ronald Reagan's family Bible, opened to this very verse.

But these leaders, like Pence, intentionally left out “and turn from their wicked ways” and “forgive their sin”!

Political leaders and even religious leaders avoid this subject, and even when they are quoting this very clear verse that is very relevant to us today, they brazenly leave out the fact that we are sinning and must turn from our wicked ways!

And these are the very words that we need to heed to save not only ourselves and our nation but the entire human race—yet even the ministers refuse to speak these words!

With America and the world facing this monstrous problem of human survival itself, the preachers just tell the people to humble themselves and pray: Apparently people will feel good and religious if they do that. But they left out the most important part: repentance! We are facing catastrophe, and yet, like little children would, we hide from it.

That is no way to solve this crisis! Yet it can be solved. That is what verse 14 says. God has said in many prophecies that He will save nations, but ONLY if they repent.

The Need for Repentance

Repentance is one of the main messages not only in 2 Chronicles 7 but throughout the Bible. The Old Testament and the New Testament are concerned with turning from sin and overcoming wickedness, not only in others but in ourselves. Yet preachers today won't even talk about this.

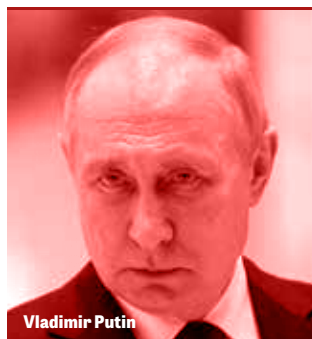

Yes, we must turn from our wicked ways and be forgiven of our sins!

What does it mean to repent of sin? 1 John 3:4 tells us that “sin is the transgression of the law.” That means that God's law reveals right and wrong, not our own reasoning or laws or anything else. We must repent of breaking God's law! But the ministers won't teach that either: They teach instead that Jesus Christ kept the law for us and actually abolished the law. That is not biblical! God expects us to repent of breaking His law and—with His help—to keep His law. That is what it means to turn from our wicked ways.

This is not just some religious teaching. This is the truth of the Bible and the reality we are facing.

How a Nation Can Turn It Around

The ancient ancestors of Germany were a people called the Assyrians. The capital of the Assyrian Empire was Nineveh. God sent a prophet to the capital city to warn the Assyrians to turn from their wicked ways. He warned that He would destroy them if they did not repent. The Prophet Jonah eventually delivered that message to them, and lo and behold, they actually did repent! It's the only time on this Earth that any non-Israelite nation has ever done that, and the Assyrians did it!

There is great hope here. God records the repentance of Nineveh in the book of Jonah to show us that He saved a nation because its people repented! Their leaders led them to do that, and they solved their problems and saved their country!

There is a solution to these terrifying threats. Even now, God would save nations if they would just heed His warning message.

The modern Assyrians in Germany are about to fulfill a certain dark role in Bible prophecy. They started two world wars and are going to start a third one. The United States is a NATO ally of Germany. It also provides Germany's warplanes access to its nuclear weapons. It recently upgraded these weapons. If the modern Israelites in America and other nations do not repent, those weapons will be turned against us!

The Bible warns that if we refuse to turn from our wicked ways, God will indeed allow nuclear war to punish mankind. But He promises that He will intervene before mankind destroys itself.

We are facing the results of our sins. We have all sinned and are all sinners. We shouldn't be embarrassed to repent, because that is our only hope, both physically and spiritually.

God says He does not want human beings to wallow in wickedness until they die. He wants us to turn from the sins that are creating such problems in our lives! (Ezekiel 33:11). He has tremendous plans for mankind, and can only proceed with those after we repent.

The Solution

The late Winston Churchill said, "Mankind has never been in this position before. Without having improved appreciably in virtue or enjoying wiser guidance, it has got into its hands for the first time the tools by which it can unfailingly accomplish its own extermination."

But the problem is even worse today. Our morals and standards are constantly declining. World leaders act more and more aggressively and have less and less judgment. If mankind continues down this route, the ultimate achievement of man would be self-extermination. Global suicide! Cosmocide!

Jesus Christ prophesied, "For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened" (Matthew 24:21-22). That is an unbreakable promise from God!

The Bible warns that if we refuse to turn from our wicked ways, God will indeed allow nuclear war to punish mankind.

The problem of human survival will be solved, but only because Jesus Christ will come and stop the war before all human flesh is dead!

Jesus warned us to be alert for this critical moment ahead of us: "Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors" (verses 32-33). This earthshaking crisis is at the door! Are you paying attention? Do you recognize how absolutely serious world events are? This truth is right there in your Bible.

Will you take action and repent before it is too late?

'A Little Flock'

In Luke 12:32, Jesus Christ said, "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." God loves mankind and is eager to bring us into the Kingdom of God. He sent Jesus to die and be resurrected, to establish His true Church—the "little flock"—and enable human beings to turn from their wicked ways, be forgiven of their sins, and keep God's perfect, holy law.

When Jesus Christ was on Earth, only 120 people were called and converted—a "little flock" indeed! (Acts 1:15).

Today, many preachers accept that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, but they say He did away with the law of God, and they misquote crucial scriptures rather than repent and submit to that law! God's true Church not only knows who Jesus Christ is but also delivers His message. That Church still exists today, and it is still a "little flock."

Many verses, including statements by Christ Himself, prophesy that there will be many false churches and false ministers who agree that Jesus was the Christ (Matthew 24:1-5) but who don't teach His message.

Christ also said, "Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath" (Luke 12:43-44). When our Lord comes—when Jesus Christ returns—we must be found DOING His work!

If we submit to God by repenting and obeying His law, He will not only shepherd us as His "little flock" but give us the Kingdom of God and make us rulers over all that He has: the whole universe! That is your human potential—not wickedness and death in a nuclear world war!

You cannot reach your wonderful human potential without first acknowledging your wicked ways, turning from them, being forgiven of your sin, and then—with God's help—keeping God's wonderful law. But if you will do that, that is only the beginning of your incredible future! ■

Will humanity destroy itself? Yes—if God doesn't intervene.

Now at Armstrong Auditorium: The Tel Dan Stele

Read the 'house of David' for yourself in Edmond, Oklahoma. BY MIHAİLO S. ZEKİC

[M]y father lay down; he went to [his fathers]. And the king of [Is]rael formerly went up to my father's land. And as for me, Hadad made me king. And Hadad went before me and I went out from the seven ... of my kingdom; and I killed seventy kings, who harnessed thou[sands of cha]riots and thousands of horsemen. [And I killed Jo]ram, the son of A[hab], king of Israel, and [I] killed [Ahaz]iah, the son of [Joram, kin]g of the house of David. And I set [] their land into desolation ... [r]uled over Israel. ...

THIS RECORD OF CONQUEST WAS inscribed in stone in the ninth century B.C., most likely by Hazael, king of Damascus. Roughly 2,800 years later, in 1993 and 1994, archaeologists uncovered fragments of the monument at the Tel Dan site in northern Israel. It became a prized artifact on display at the Israel Museum. Now through late November, it is at Armstrong Auditorium, on loan as part of the "Kingdom of David and Solomon Discovered" exhibit.

Visit the exhibit to see this ancient treasure yourself, rock-solid proof of "the house of David."

"Kingdom of David and Solomon Discovered" is sponsored by the Armstrong Institute of Biblical Archaeology and features loans from the Israel Antiquities Authority and the Israel Museum that piece together the story of the 10th century B.C. Kingdom of Israel with dozens of authentic artifacts, replicas, virtual reality tours and more. But the Tel Dan Stele, arguably the greatest archaeological proof for the existence of David, is a real gem to add to the exhibition's already heavyweight cast. "This was the first [confirmed] appearance of the term 'David' in an archaeological text and, given the context, could only refer to the historical progenitor of the Davidic line," Randall Price and H. Wayne House wrote in the Zondervan Handbook of Biblical Archaeology. "By deduction, if there was a 'house of David,' there had to be a 'David' to have a house."

"The discovery of the stele caused an earthquake in the archaeological community," "Kingdom of David and Solomon Discovered" curator Brad Macdonald said. "It vanquished the common belief that King David was a fictional character and bolstered the credibility of the Bible as a valuable historical source. This is just one reason it is one of the most important archaeological discoveries ever found."

The stele, which dates to roughly 100 years after Solomon's death, not only mentions David by name but also establishes him as the head of an influential dynasty. Even without the statement "the house of David," this monument would still be remarkable for its corroboration of the biblical kings Ahab and Joram of Israel (1 Kings 16:29; 2 Kings 3:1) and of King Ahaziah of Judah (2 Kings 8:24). The Bible makes indirect references to the Syrian god Hadad (e.g. 1 Kings 20:1), and it identifies Hazael as a powerful warrior and destructive enemy of Israel (2 Kings 8:12). Intriguingly, the Bible says Joram's coup-plotting general Jehu was the kings' killers. Where Jehu fits within the Tel Dan Stele's narrative is a mystery, but Jehu and Hazael were contemporaries.

Hazael was a heathen king who harmed Israel greatly. Yet intriguingly, the Bible notes that God commissioned the Prophet Elijah to anoint Hazael king of Syria. Elijah's successor, Elisha, fulfilled the commission.

The Bible shows that God used Hazael to correct Israel for its sins and to move His overall plan for mankind forward. In a sense, to this day, God is still doing that. David is mentioned almost 900 times in the Holy Bible, almost as many times as Jesus Christ. The Bible describes the kingdom of Israel during the reigns of David and Solomon as powerful, influential and monumental.

Yet archaeologists and other scholars regarded descriptions of David and specifically descriptions of his kingdom as fanciful myth. It was Hazael's stele that caused the scholarly consensus to accept David as a literal historical figure.

Armstrong Auditorium will exhibit the Tel Dan Stele through November 25. "Kingdom of David and Solomon Discovered" continues through Jan. 17, 2025. ■

EGYPT ON THE BRINK

BY MIHAILO S. ZEKIC

I met a traveler from an antique land,
Who said—"Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
Stand in the desert. . . . Near them, on the sand,
Half sunk a shattered visage lies, whose frown,
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command,
Tell that its sculptor well those passions read
Which yet survive, stamped on these lifeless things,
The hand that mocked them, and the heart that fed;
And on the pedestal, these words appear:
My name is Ozymandias, king of kings;
Look on my works, ye mighty, and despair!
Nothing beside remains. Round the decay
Of that colossal wreck, boundless and bare
The lone and level sands stretch far away.

—Percy Bysshe Shelley, "Ozymandias"

SHELLEY'S POEM, DESCRIBING THE irredeemably crumbled empire of a boastful pharaoh, in a sense applies to Egypt today. Egyptian power today is decaying, and much faster than its current ruler, President Abdel Fattah al-Sisi, would think or expect. He faces cascading economic crises that threaten to erase his legacy, from causes as varied as COVID-19 to the Ukraine war to the Houthis. The Egyptian people today are demanding dramatic change.

Yet everyone remembers what happened the last time they felt this way and filled the streets of Cairo. When they get the change they are crying out for, not only the Middle East but every corner of the world will be impacted.

Close to 30 percent of Egypt's 111 million people live in poverty. More than 70 percent rely on government-subsidized bread. The World Health Organization estimated in 2021 that more than 1 in 5 Egyptian children has stunted growth due to undernourishment. Egypt is the second-largest debtor state to the International Monetary Fund, owing the bank about $15 billion to keep its economy afloat.

In April, the IMF estimated Egypt's inflation rate—around 32.5 percent—to be the ninth-highest in the world, worse than those in Haiti and Bangladesh. The New York Times Cairo bureau chief gave a snapshot of living in such a volatile economy: "Grocery prices are stratospheric. Money is worth half of what it was a year ago. For many, eggs are now a luxury and meat is off the table. For others, burdened with school fees and medical expenses, the middle-class lives they had worked doggedly to sustain are slipping beyond their grasp" (Jan. 23, 2023).

One of Egypt's economic lifelines is its history that draws tourists to contemplate it among such ruins as Shelley's traveler described. Tourism accounts for an estimated 10 percent to 15 percent of Egypt's economy and 10 percent of its jobs.

In 2019, Egypt received a record 13 million tourists. The following year, as coronavirus lockdowns swept the world, that number dropped precipitously to 3.6 million. Tourism revenue for the 2020–2021 fiscal year plunged nearly 70 percent.

Those numbers have rebounded, and once again close to 13 million people a year visit Egypt. But such a dramatic pause for so long in such an impoverished country has ripple effects. And it was not the only global event to rattle Egypt's tourist industry and its overall economy.

The Heart That Fed

Before 2022, about a third of Egypt's tourists came from two countries: Russia and Ukraine. When Russian President Vladimir Putin expanded his invasion of Ukraine into full-scale war in 2022, that source of tourists dried up. But Russia and Ukraine provide something even more valuable to Egypt than tourists: wheat.

The land around the Nile River is extremely fertile and has supported strong empires for thousands of years, but most of those empires didn't have to feed 111 million people. The Egyptian government relies on massive amounts of food imports. In fact, it competes with China, which has about 12 times more mouths to feed, as the world's biggest wheat importer. In 2022, Egypt imported $4.8 billion worth, close to 7 percent of world wheat exports.

One reason for Egypt's heavy reliance on wheat is its bread subsidy program, which has existed for more than 100 years and currently provides five loaves per person per day. This amounts to almost 2 percent of government spending. In 2021, Russia was the world's largest exporter of wheat, responsible for 17 percent of global exports. Ukraine, at 10 percent, was the fifth largest. Their productivity and relative proximity made them logical partners for Egypt. Both countries are still exporting wheat, but the shock waves of the war have caused bread prices to rise dramatically. Since 2022, Russia has disrupted Ukraine's exports through the Black Sea to further its own goals. Last year, Russia backed out of a deal not to disrupt Ukrainian grain shipping from the Black Sea.

Russia admitted that it hoped this move would starve poorer nations. The idea was to force the world on threat of starvation to drop global sanctions against Russia. "All our hope is in the famine," said Margarita Simonyan, editor in chief of Russia's government-run RT news agency, in 2022. "[T]he famine will start now, and they will lift the sanctions and be friends with us because they will realize it is necessary."

Russia caused this crisis to hurt not only Ukraine but also countries dependent on grain imports. Egypt is at the top of the list.

Ukraine resumed grain exports this year. The initial crisis is over. But as with the coronavirus, such a jolt to an already impoverished country struggling to feed its people will have lasting effects.

On June 1, the Egyptian government quadrupled the price of subsidized bread in a cost-saving measure. This reduces the strain on government funds and the economy, but it also turns many Egyptians against the government and Sisi. There are dangerous precedents for this in living memory. President Anwar Sadat tried to raise the price in 1977 but backed down after massive riots. One of the primary reasons over a million people packed into Cairo's Tahrir Square to oust his successor, Hosni Mubarak, was unaffordable bread. Those 2011 protests led to Mubarak's deposition and regime change.

2023 brought another crisis to Egypt—one that hit much closer to home.

Colossal Wreck

On Oct. 7, 2023, Hamas terrorists crossed from Gaza into Israel, murdered 1,195 people and abducted over 200 more. Israel retaliated by invading Gaza. While the world focuses on the war, the impact on Egypt is less apparent but incredibly consequential.

Hamas's sponsor, Iran, activated another of its proxies in the war against Israel last November: The Houthi movement in Yemen began attacking commercial shipping in the Bab el-Mandeb strait, the Red Sea's southern choke point.

Israel's Red Sea port of Eilat has received less traffic due to the Houthis' attacks. But Israel is not the Red Sea's most vulnerable customer; that is Egypt. Egypt depends on the Suez Canal for much-needed foreign revenue. But when ships can't pass through the Bab el-Mandeb, they have no reason to pass through Suez. Many Western shipping giants, even with American security guarantees, are taking the longer but safer route of sailing their ships entirely south of Africa.

On January 11, Suez Canal Authority head Osama Rabie claimed revenues for 2024 were already down 40 percent from the corresponding time last year. In May, Egypt's revenue from the Suez Canal dropped 48 percent year over year from $648 million to $338 million.

For the 2022–2023 fiscal year, the Suez Canal contributed 2 percent of Egypt's gross domestic product. While Israel progresses in its Gaza invasion, the Houthis and Iran's other proxies say they won't stop their campaigns until Israel backs down. With the war having just passed its one-year anniversary, the Houthis show no sign of relenting.

Sneer of Cold Command

How is Sisi responding to these economic and other crises? Surprisingly, by spending on what could be called pharaonic vanity projects, including building an entirely new capital city in the Sahara.

The official reason for moving the government out of Cairo, its capital for over a millennium, is to provide the government a headquarters away from a congested metropolitan area of over 22 million people. Some analysts suspect the real reason is protection from revolution, keeping Sisi away from the potentially rowdy crowds that overthrew former President Hosni Mubarak.

The expected final construction cost is $58 billion. The furnishings include the Cathedral of the Nativity of Christ for Egypt's Coptic Christian minority—the largest cathedral in the Middle East. Its Iconic Tower skyscraper is the largest in Africa. The capital's Grand Mosque is the second-largest in Africa. The Octagon, at about seven times the size of the Pentagon in the United States, is the largest military headquarters building in the world.

Sisi claims he hopes people will move en masse to the new capital. But with low-end apartments having an $80,000 price tag, life in the New Administrative Capital (NAC) is out of reach for most Egyptians.

The NAC isn't Sisi's only vanity project. The $1 billion Grand Egyptian Museum in Giza, yet to fully open, will be the largest archaeological museum in the world. The Rod El Farag Bridge, the world's widest suspension bridge, was also built under Sisi's watch. An $8 billion expansion of the Suez Canal, meanwhile, failed to bring any meaningful increase in revenue, even before the Houthis started their shooting spree.

These megaprojects create job opportunities and encourage foreign investment, but with an economy as battered as Egypt's, is the extravagance and grandiosity really necessary? Does Egypt need to build the world's largest defense headquarters when tens of millions of Egyptians can't afford to buy bread? Most Egyptians know these projects aren't about jump-starting the economy.

"None of this is for us," Mohammed Mahmoud, a NAC construction worker, told the New York Times in 2020. Mahmoud gestured at the marble-fronted cityscape he helped build, then pointed to a billboard featuring Sisi. "It's for him."

Nothing Beside Remains

Just looking at the facts on the ground, the immediate future of Egypt and its ruler are not apparent. But the Trumpet is watching for a certain outcome based on Bible prophecy. Some factors stand out. Egypt today is weak. Its economy is vulnerable. Many of the circumstances are outside of the government's control; nonetheless, Egyptians are getting fed up with their government and want change. The same top-heavy extravagance that Sisi is indulging in stirred revolution against Hosni Mubarak in 2011. The Muslim Brotherhood emerged from the mess and a dictatorial Islamist government resulted. Sisi was the one who, in turn, overthrew it and turned Egypt back again to secularism, but the Trumpet forecasts that radical Islam will yet win out.

Daniel 11 records an end-time prophecy: "And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps" (verses 40-43).

The "king of the south" is a modern power bloc with a provocative foreign policy aimed against the West. It has a proxy empire controlling large areas of the Middle East and Africa. Since the 1990s, Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry has identified the king of the south as radical Islam, led by Iran. He writes in his free booklet The King of the South: "Egypt will be conquered or controlled by the king of the north [modern Europe; request a free copy of History and Prophecy of the Middle East for more information]. This clearly implies that Egypt will be allied with the king of the south.

"This prophecy indicates we are about to see a far-reaching change in Egyptian politics! We have been saying since 1994 that this would occur. Look at Egypt today, and you see the nation's foreign policy and political orientation changing in a way that threatens to transform the entire region!"

Iran is the number one sponsor of terrorism in the Middle East. Hamas, the Houthis, Hezbollah, al-Shabaab and many other notorious terrorist groups receive funding, weapons and even orders from Iran. Through the Houthis especially, Iran has demonstrated great capacity to hurt Egypt through its proxy empire.

Radical Islam, led by Iran, will take over Egypt. This nation, suffering from a perfect storm of crises, is ripe for this revolution right now. When it happens, it will not be "just another political turnover in a Third World country far away from the West." Egypt has one of the largest militaries in the Middle East. It directly borders Israel and is a relatively short boat ride from Europe. The Houthis have demonstrated how much damage world trade sustains when one end of the Red Sea gets closed off. What happens when both ends close?

The lesson of Shelley's "Ozymandias" is that, no matter how proud, every emperor loses his glory in the end. Shelley implies that this fictional potentate's fall from "king of kings" to his empire becoming "lone and level sands," took generations. Egypt's modern pharaoh will not have to wait that long to see his realm crumble.

But the major significance of Daniel 11 is not Egypt's fall or radicalization, but what follows it. After a turbulent "time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time," these events lead to the time when "thy people [the people of God] shall be delivered ..." (Daniel 12:1). This means the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, and everything associated with it: the resurrection of the dead (verses 2-3), utopia for Egypt and for every nation (Isaiah 19:24-25), and the end of this age's curses. This hope beyond the storm is the perspective most needed. ■

Egypt's fall is prophesied.

You can know how and who is involved—just order and study your free copy of Gerald Flurry's detailed booklet The King of the South.

THE PERSISTENT FANTASY OF VLADIMIR DEMISE

"IT IS NOT CLEAR HOW PUTIN ... CAN reverse the slide," CNN wrote. "The turbulence is just beginning."

Since Ukrainian forces invaded Russia's Kursk region on August 6, capturing hundreds of square miles and marking the first time Russia has been invaded by a foreign army since World War II, some Kremlin watchers have said the Russian president is now living on borrowed time.

But the CNN article quoted above is not about Ukraine's Kursk invasion; in fact, it is not recent. It was published in December 2011 after Vladimir Putin's party had performed below expectations in parliamentary elections.

At that time 13 years ago, the CNN writer was one of several who were penning Putin's epitaph. And in the years since, similar gloomy predictions for him have been issued again and again:

- In 2012, the Economist headlined: "The Beginning of the End of Putin."
- In 2014, analyst Paul Vale wrote that the "push by the [European Union] to inflict more punishing strictures against Russia's elites could ... pose an existential threat to the Putin regime."
- In 2017, the New Yorker said protests created "a sense that, after 17 years, Vladimir Putin's political system was running out of arguments to justify its continued monopoly hold on power."

The voices heralding Putin's demise reached a fever pitch last summer with the mutiny of Russia's Wagner Group. "[I]t is the final chapter of his rule," Foreign Policy wrote. The Economist echoed the sentiment: "Putin has shown he can dictator himself.

NT ASY PUTIN'S SE

The wishful thinking

BY JEREMIAH JACQUES

no longer maintain order among his warlords.” The Times asked: “Is this the end for Putin?”

With August’s invasion of Kursk, it is true that Ukrainians have brought the war to Russia in an unprecedented way. The maps show that Ukraine conquered more of Russia in nine days than Russia had conquered of Ukraine in the previous nine months. The hundreds of square miles they conquered included one of Russia’s most important gas transit hubs, which Ukraine could now destroy at any time. Tens of thousands of Russians were evacuated from the captured area, and the Russians apparently lack a strategy to push the Ukrainians out. The development was a major black eye for Putin. So it should come as no surprise that some commentators began once again ringing his death knell.

Despite the challenges the Russian ruler now faces, the Trumpet believes he will endure the current tumult and remain at the helm of Russia. This is not just because he has proven himself time and again to be a remarkably crafty survivor, but because of the teachings of the Bible.

Is Putin Prophesied?

Around the year A.D. 90, the Apostle John recorded a prophecy describing a military force of 200 million men (Revelation 9:16), which is far larger than any ever assembled in human history. Other passages provide details about this massive power. Revelation 16:12 calls it “the kings of the east,” showing it to be a coalition of multiple Asian nations. Daniel 11:44 and 12:1 show it will be among the main belligerents in World War III. And Ezekiel 38:2 reveals that this coalition will have one nation—and one man—at the helm. He is called “the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal” (New King James Version).

Rosh is a name for Russia, once called Rus, a point acknowledged by the Jamieson, Fausset and Brown Commentary. Meshech and Tubal indicate key Russian cities Moscow and Tobolsk.

Ezekiel 38 goes on to show the conquests of the mighty force led by this Russian prince. It also discusses the army’s eventual defeat.

So who is this individual? In the September 2014 Trumpet, editor in chief Gerald Flurry wrote: “I strongly believe Vladimir Putin is going to lead the 200 million-man army. Just look at the power he already has.

“Can you think of any other Russian politician who could become so powerful and have the will to lead Russia into the crisis of crises? I see nobody else on the horizon who could do that. And only a tiny few years remain for the prince of Rosh to appear! ...

“This much is absolutely certain: The restoring of Russia’s power by Vladimir Putin—the prince of Russia—was prophesied! He has already solidly allied Russia with China. The prophecy about the prince of Russia includes that main alliance. ... The only question is whether or not Putin personally finishes the entire prophecy.”

By the time Mr. Flurry published the 2021 version of The Prophesied ‘Prince of Russia,’ he had removed all doubt from his stance, asserting with certainty that Putin would personally fulfill this role.

“HIS TRACK RECORD, HIS NATIONALITY AND HIS IDEOLOGY SHOW THAT HE IS FULFILLING A LINCHPIN BIBLE PROPHECY. The time frame of his rule also shows that nobody else could be fulfilling the Ezekiel 38 and 39 prophecy. ...

“We need to watch Vladimir Putin closely. He is the ‘prince of Rosh’ whom God inspired Ezekiel to write about 2,500 years ago!”

Given our view of Putin’s key role in end-time Bible prophecy, the Trumpet does not agree with those who claim that his demise is imminent, or that Ukraine’s invasion of Russia spells the end for him. Conquering Ukraine is actually a central component of Putin’s big-picture goal of resurrecting the Soviet Empire. “The architecture of that empire was built around Ukraine being a part of it,” Mr. Flurry writes. “Ukraine is ... the linchpin of his goal of a renewed imperial Russia!” This is why Putin remains so fiercely determined to subdue Ukraine, and shows that he is not likely to give up in this war, no matter how much time, blood and treasure it takes. But whatever the specific outcomes of this conflict, Bible prophecy shows that “Prince Putin” will eventually lead a colossal Asian army that will be fighting far larger and far more destructive wars. ■

The Mystery of the Spirit

The truth about angels and evil spirits mystifies most people. But you can understand!

BY GERALD FLURRY

MOST PEOPLE DO NOT REALIZE THAT THE EARTH was not the first thing God created, nor was the expansive universe, with all the other planets, stars and galaxies. The first thing God created was the angels.

Despite the Bible being filled with verses about angels, mankind is almost totally mystified about the spirit realm.

Because the spirit world is invisible, it is a mystery. There is a lot we don't understand about electricity and other things we can't see, but the reality of it is there. The same is true of God and the rest of the spirit realm. We simply need to open our minds to the truth of God.

The Bible implies that God created, individually, perhaps billions of angels. These spirit beings have a mind of greater capacity and ability than any human being. Even when Jesus Christ came to Earth, He was made "a little lower than the angels" (Hebrews 2:7). These are mighty, powerful beings!

Angels do not reproduce like human beings do. The reason for that, revealed in the Bible, is spectacularly inspiring. It shows that as brilliant as these beings are, YOUR POTENTIAL IS FAR GREATER!

Lucifer's Fall

The greatest spirit being God ever created was named Lucifer, meaning "shining star of the dawn" or "bringer of light." God made this awesome being to help bring more light to the universe! He wanted and still wants to bring light to this dark world. But this being ended up turning away from God and was filled with darkness.

Lucifer challenged God and persuaded one third of the angels to rebel with him. Those fallen angels are known as demons. They rebelled against their Maker and left "their first estate" (Jude 6).

The Prophet Isaiah wrote this about Lucifer's rebellion: "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!" (Isaiah 14:12). The Revised Standard Version says that Lucifer "laid the nations low!" He has gotten control of political and military leaders. That is what he has done throughout mankind's 6,000-year history, especially in the Gentile nations.

"For thou [Lucifer] hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High" (verses 13-14). He was filled with vanity! Lucifer had to make a choice—as humans do today—to either follow God or resist and turn against Him. God tells each one of us today to choose life! (Deuteronomy 30:19). Don't follow after rebellion and disobedience.

One third of the angels—millions or even billions—were persuaded by the devil to turn away from God, at which point this world became violent. God the Father and the Son have lived peacefully for all eternity. Everything in the universe was in perfect harmony, and there had never been any violence—until sin was found in Lucifer (Ezekiel 28:15).

Can you see the result of this evil in the world today? It is everywhere, especially in the nations of Israel—predominately the United States, Britain and the Jewish nation in the Middle East. (Request Herbert W. Armstrong's The United States and Britain in Prophecy for proof of Israel's modern identity.)

Ephesians 6 tells us that our contentions and strivings are not with other people, but rather "against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness [or evil spirits] in high places" (verse 12). These evil spirits rule this world! They are in the high places of the Earth. Satan has deceived this whole world (Revelation 12:9).

"Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience" (Ephesians 2:2). Satan broadcasts through the air, just like television or radio signals. He fills the air with his hostile spirit, reaching people through moods, attitudes, feelings. He has been able to really work on people today! Many of them are full of hostility, hatred and bitterness. Satan can really get to a person like that, persuading them in ways you can't imagine. That is plainly revealed in your Bible.

A Second Attempt

The Bible often uses the principle of duality—events have a former and a latter-day fulfillment. That principle applies to this angelic rebellion: They tried to overthrow God before the creation of Adam, and they did so again in this end time, just before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Isaiah 14 is history—but it is also a prophecy of what will happen in this end time. The book of Isaiah was specifically written for the time we are living in today (Isaiah 30:8).

Here is what Herbert W. Armstrong wrote in Mystery of the Ages: “Isaiah 14:12-14 applies to a time prior to the creation of the first human, Adam. But in Revelation 12:7 and Daniel 12:1 Satan, at the end of the 6,000 years allotted to his rule on Earth’s throne, tries once again to seize God’s throne in heaven.” Satan is so mad in his reasoning that he thinks he can take over the throne of his Creator! That is the height of insanity.

“And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him” (Revelation 12:7-9). In this end time, Satan tried to conquer God again. This happened recently, and we can prove it to you.

This attempt took place on Jan. 16, 1986. If you study my book Malachi’s Message, you will see that that happened. My son’s book Raising the Ruins further explains how it all happened. (Both of these books are free upon request.)

What does it mean that Satan has been cast down? Verse 12 explains: “Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. WOE TO THE INHABITERS OF THE EARTH and of the sea! for THE DEVIL IS COME DOWN UNTO YOU, HAVING GREAT WRATH, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

Can you see the result of this evil in the world today? It is everywhere, especially in the nations of Israel.

Think seriously about the implications of this passage. God says WOE to us on Earth. The devil is here, and he is VERY ANGRY. So what is he doing? The passage continues, “And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child” (verse 13). The woman in this verse is a type of God’s Church. In this end time, Satan attempted to take over the throne of God! He couldn’t conquer God, so he set out to conquer God’s Church.

Right after he was cast down, the devil attacked the true Church of God and DESTROYED IT. He turned 95 percent of God’s people away from their Creator!

Then, following that attack, he launched an offensive against the nations of Israel. He has caused frightful destruction in America and other Israelite nations. The evidence is everywhere around us.

Satan assaulted the nations of Israel, but this attack is going to affect the whole world. “WOE to the inhabitants of THE EARTH,” God says. It’s not just about Israel. God is giving the devil space to punish the nations of Israel first, but the rest of the world will be punished as well. Events right now are building toward that worldwide event!

SOME OF THE LEADERS YOU SEE ON THE SCENE TODAY WILL BE LEADING THEIR NATIONS AT THE RETURN OF JESUS CHRIST! Christ will have to personally destroy them!

And notice: “[H]e hath but a short time.” Satan’s time is almost up! God is about to remove him and imprison him, and there will be no more attempts to take over God’s throne.

Satan knows his time is short. That is why he is full of wrath. You can see that wrath on Earth today. Most people would never attribute this world’s problems to Satan—but he is the cause, because this world unwittingly worships him (2 Corinthians 4:4). Despite his clear possession of incredibly destructive power, most of humanity today scoffs at the idea of the devil.

Can you believe what your Bible says?

Angelic Protection

When Satan attacked God’s Church, he caused 95 percent of God’s people to turn away. Thankfully, 5 percent remained loyal. This small group conducts God’s work and is protected by the righteous angels led by the archangel Michael. This mighty angelic being would defend the nations of Israel too, if they would let him! But they are in rebellion.

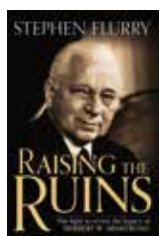

The Prophet Daniel foretold this: “And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book” (Daniel 12:1). God is going to deliver His faithful people through the turbulent times ahead. God will accept anybody who turns and repents and gives himself to Him. If he becomes converted, God will give him protection and blessings.

Daniel then says those people will shine like the stars forever and ever (verse 3). Do you really believe that? How many people really believe what God says? Mankind scoffs at this transcendent potential! They simply won’t believe His inspired Bible. That is the reason for all of humanity’s problems.

The Bible mentions three angels of the extremely high rank of cherub: Lucifer, Michael and Gabriel. But since Lucifer’s rebellion, only Michael and Gabriel remain.

God gave angels free moral agency. But He wasn’t building character in the angels the way He is doing with mankind. It is a different process.

God makes us choose so we can build character. If we don’t build character, then we have no future with God—it’s that simple. Too many people in this world have no character to speak of! They don’t want God’s character. They don’t want to become perfect as their Father in heaven is perfect (Matthew 5:48).

Our Marvelous Potential

Hebrews 1 contrasts God's plan for the angels with His much greater plan for humankind. This passage says the righteous angels are secret messengers of God to serve His faithful saints who have repented and given their lives to God and His work.

This passage is clear that the angels are not family to God the way that Jesus Christ is—and that human beings can be! “For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? ... But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?” (verses 5, 13-14). The angels are here to serve us and help us receive salvation—upon which we will become far superior to what they are today!

This is a truth that ought to overwhelm us! When the angels saw God create the universe and Earth, they shouted for joy! (Job 38:4-7). They knew God was offering them a part in beautifying that creation.

God put one third of them on Earth to see if they could rule the Earth and universe. But that group failed. At that point, God knew that only He could be trusted to rule the universe.

Therefore, God decided to re-create Himself in man. The angels failed in taking care of the Earth, so now God is going to use humans to fulfill their transcendent potential to beautify the universe that was wrecked by Satan's rebellion.

Now He is creating sons who are to be born into the very Family of God! He created our physical capacity to reproduce and have families to prepare us for that future. Physical family is a God-plane relationship; it's a type of the God Family. Marriage is a God-plane relationship; it's a type of our marriage to Jesus Christ (Ephesians 5:22-33). Those whom God calls, who will come out of the world and serve Him before the Second Coming, are going to become the Bride of Jesus Christ! That is the most wonderful truth you could imagine. You can comprehend that if you choose to. God will see to it that you do.

Angels have worked throughout the Bible and throughout history; some have even appeared to men like Abraham, Moses, Gideon and other servants of God. Many have served God faithfully for millennia. And God still has a wonderful future prepared for those angels who have remained loyal to Him.

These are wonderful truths. All this information is in your Bible and in Mystery of the Ages. This book will give you all the scriptures you need to study regarding the history of angels.

Mystery of the Ages is a book like no other you'll read. You need this book. It is a synopsis of the entire Bible. There is no book on Earth, except the Bible, that is more important. That was Mr. Armstrong's view; it is my view too—and I think once you truly understand it, it will be your view. It will be taught to this whole world very shortly. God is preparing teachers now who can disseminate the truth of God to the world. Most people who have ever lived never truly knew God. But that is about to change. They will be resurrected and taught the truth. ■

ARE YOU ASKING THE BIG QUESTIONS?

Who am I? What am I? Why am I?

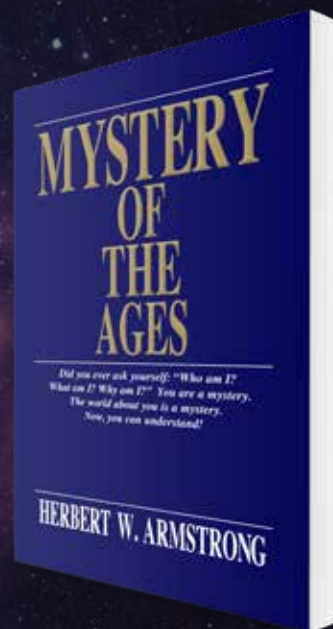

You are a mystery. The world about you is a mystery.
Now, you can understand!

HERBERT W.
ARMSTRONG

This remarkable work by Herbert W. Armstrong clarifies the most important—yet most elusive—knowledge ever revealed. Mystery of the Ages reveals the true biblical answers to seven of life's most puzzling mysteries:

1. Who and What Is God?
2. The Mystery of Angels and Evil Spirits
3. The Mystery of Man
4. The Mystery of Civilization
5. The Mystery of Israel
6. The Mystery of the Church
7. The Mystery of the Kingdom of God

'There Is Nothing Better'

Work hard and reap the rewards!

“YE HAVE THE POOR WITH YOU ALWAYS,” JESUS CHRIST said. It is as true today as it was then. Whether it's the plight of people in the inner cities, in rural Appalachia or crossing the border, poverty is a serious issue even in the United States of America, the land of opportunity. Dire problems like homelessness, addiction and more trace back to poverty. What does poverty trace back to? Not in every case, but in many cases, it is caused by a poor work ethic.

Poor work ethic, laziness and refusing responsibility and accountability are causing massive problems even in the wealthiest nation in history. They lead to a push for more Big Government intervention and welfare, even for replacing constitutional government with communism.

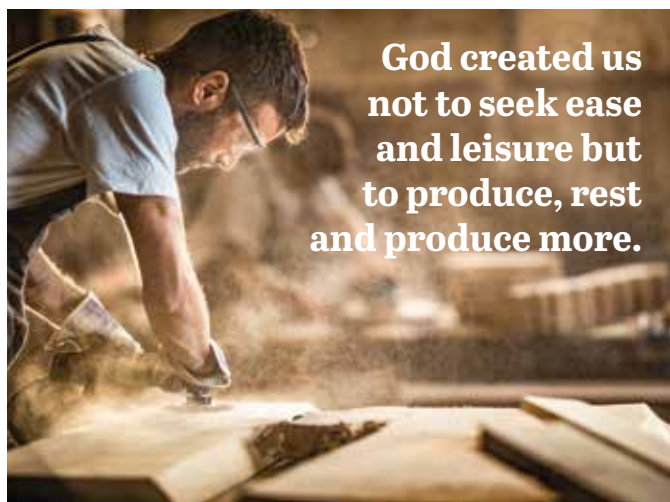

“The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour. He coveteth greedily all the day long; but the righteous giveth and spareth not” (Proverbs 21:25-26). The desire for a work-free life is self-destructive. As the lazy man witnesses others reaping the rewards of hard work, jealousy sets in. Still, he doesn't want to follow the good example of those hard workers; he covets money and chooses “leaders” who cater to his mindset with big promises.

God has a much better solution, both nationally and individually. The Bible vividly describes the real, tangible benefits of hard work and personal responsibility. It refers to work and labor almost 800 times. It makes clear that God highly rewards hard work. “He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand; but the hand of the diligent maketh rich” (Proverbs 10:4).

Hard work often leads to wealth, but even when it does not, you still benefit. Proverbs 14:23 states: “In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.” Some of that profit comes in the form of money, but much of it comes in other forms, which is far more beneficial, since riches “fly away as an eagle toward heaven” (Proverbs 23:4-5). Circumstances beyond your control can take away your wealth. But there are higher motivations for working hard.

“There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. ... Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion ...” (Ecclesiastes 2:24; 3:22). God wants you to come home after a day of hard work feeling fulfilled and taking time to rejuvenate. Solomon wrote that there is nothing better.

Both physical labor and mental labor produce pleasant sensations. Toiling in the elements all day leads to a feeling of satisfying tiredness and an increased appreciation for the upcoming night of rest. Toiling to focus on something worthwhile and eliminating distractions to complete a project causes a delightful sort of mental fatigue, which also makes a good night of sleep all the more satisfying. And when you busy yourself by putting your head down and working hard rather than with idleness, jealousy and gossip, many relationship problems sort themselves out. God created us not to seek ease and leisure but to produce, rest and produce more.

When you indulge in idleness rather than work, you accomplish nothing, your responsibilities are neglected, you are forced to try to make up for lost time, and you feel stressed and unfulfilled.

In the New Testament, the Apostle Paul gave this strong admonition: “For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. ... And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed” (2 Thessalonians 3:10-12, 14; see also 1 Thessalonians 4:11-12).

This is the directive of the Creator of human beings: If you don't work, you don't eat! Soon enough, then, you will get to work! But the attitude pervading America and the rest of the world is to avoid work and still eat, luxuriously if possible. Where does that attitude come from? See 2 Corinthians 4:4, Ephesians 2:2 and Revelation 12:9.

The ultimate motivation for working hard is not just the inherent satisfaction that comes from it. Be motivated to work so that you can obey God and become like Him. Work is so important, He included it in the Fourth Commandment: “Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work” (Exodus 20:9). The best workers are God the Father and Jesus Christ. Christ said, “My Father worketh hitherto, and I work” (John 5:17).

Working hard enables God to build His character in us. When we labor, God provides our needs and many of our desires. Work hard in this life, trying to become like your Father, as Jesus Christ did. Then you will have the character to help God, when He establishes His government on Earth, to teach all mankind the countless blessings of hard work. ■

EUROPE

A collaboration of businessmen and Ukrainian military officers decided to blow up parts of the Nord Stream pipeline in 2022, according to an August 14 Wall Street Journal report that is based on unnamed sources. The sources, who claimed to be Ukrainian officers, said it came down to a team of six people, mainly experienced deep-sea divers, with $300,000 and a rented yacht. If true, the revelations could be explosive within Germany. All the mainstream political parties at least on paper support Ukraine in its war with Russia. But a growing segment of the population opposes it, especially as high energy prices caused financial hardship to the people. If Ukraine is directly responsible for disrupting Nord Stream and causing those high prices, that dissenting segment could grow. That would mean more rejection of the mainstream parties and turning more to the far right or far left, further worsening Germany's political divide. That divide has already made it very hard for Germany to have stable coalitions. Germans have a growing appetite for strongman leadership. The attack on free speech in Europe continues. The European Commission announced on July 12 that it will prosecute X, formerly known as Twitter, for alleged violations to its Digital Services Act. The investigation opened in December 2023 over concerns about how X regulates its blue checks and ads. The social media platform's owner, Elon Musk, interviewed Donald Trump, and the European Union responded with a letter to Musk from European Commissioner for Internal Market and Services Thierry Breton threatening fines if any "harmful content" was aired in the interview. The attack from the EU on an American social media site hosting an interview in America with an American presidential candidate exposes the EU's ambition to regulate speech around the world, something Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry warned about in his April article "The EU's War on Free Speech."

The eyes of the world were on France as Paris hosted the Olympic Games, and many were upset by what they saw. Drag queens—men dressed as women—played a major part in the opening celebrations. One scene appeared to be a depiction of the Last Supper, with a fat woman wearing a halo representing Jesus and transsexuals representing the apostles. Some backed away from the Last Supper connection, saying it was meant to show Greek gods partying. It exposed the moral decay in France, but also widened its own culture wars between a conservative Catholic bloc and the left. France's president, Emmanuel Macron, put himself on the side of the left by praising the ceremony. The so-called far right in France are generally pro-Catholic; the backlash after this ceremony could push French politics in that direction. Christianity is routinely mocked, but in Europe, watch for the pendulum to swing back the other direction, forcefully.

MIDDLE EAST

Israel's prime minister, Benjamin Netanyahu, addressed the United States Congress for the fourth time on July 24, presenting his vision for the Middle East after the war between Israel and Hamas terrorists in Gaza concludes.

"America and Israel today can forge a security alliance in the Middle East to counter the growing Iranian threat," he said. "All countries that are in peace with Israel and all those countries who will make peace with Israel should be invited to join this alliance." Netanyahu cited as an example the April 14 barrage of drones and missiles Iran launched against Israel, and the defense of Israel by Jordan, Saudi Arabia and other countries, led by the United States.

Forming a "Middle Eastern NATO" would mean trusting these and other Arab nations with increased national security information. Bringing them into Gaza would mean trusting predominantly Muslim Arab troops to deradicalize one of the most radical Islamist populations on the planet. It would presume that the forces of Jordan and Saudi Arabia, which have attacked Israel four times in its 76-year history, will not do so again.

Psalms 83 details several Middle Eastern countries forming an alliance for an evil purpose: "that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance" (verse 4). The modern descendants of these peoples include some of those with whom Israel is seeking an alliance (see "Why the Trumpet Watches an Alliance Between Arab Nations and Europe").

The Chinese punctured a 3-foot-wide hole in one Philippine ship and an almost 5-foot-wide hole in the other. "We can fairly say that this is the biggest structural damage we have incurred as a result of the dangerous maneuvers carried out by the Chinese Coast Guard," said a Philippine Coast Guard spokesman. guest house in Tehran, killing Ismail Haniyeh, the chairman of Hamas's political bureau. Haniyeh was in Iran to attend the inauguration of its new president, Masoud Pezeshkian. Though Israel did not claim responsibility for the assassination, it appears to be responsible.

Many analysts expected Haniyeh's predecessor, Khaled Mashal, to succeed him, but Yahya Sinwar, Hamas's leader in Gaza, pushed for someone who has a much closer relationship with Hamas sponsor Iran. On August 6, Hamas's Shura Council announced the new chairman: Sinwar himself.

Sinwar was already directing Hamas's operations in Gaza, sometimes overruling Haniyeh, who lived in Qatar. The Jerusalem Post stated that Sinwar "reportedly sports messianic views, viewing himself and Hamas as messengers who would bring [about] Allah's promise for the end of days ... in which the entire world would become Muslim and all heretics would be killed—starting with the alleged 'liberation of Palestine'" (August 7).

Sinwar's selection demonstrates that the real power behind the perpetrators of October 7 is Iran's mullahs, who hold similarly radical beliefs and who have now increased their hold on Hamas. Hamas is on the verge of defeat on the Gaza battlefield, but with Sinwar and other radicals consolidating their power rather than dissolving it, Hamas may emerge from the ashes more aggressive than ever.

A prophecy in Zechariah 14:1-2 states that shortly before the Second Coming of Christ, half of Jerusalem will fall. Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry in his booklet Jerusalem in Prophecy states that this means Islamists in the West Bank will take over Jerusalem. Palestinian factions there right now are too weak and disorganized to attempt something like this. But Sinwar or a radical like him may bring this much closer to reality. ■

Leaders of the Chinese Communist Party use ancient maps to make sweeping claims over almost all of the vast South China Sea. But The Hague's Permanent Court of Arbitration ruled in 2016 that these claims violate international law and encroach on the lawfully held territory of several other countries, including the Philippines.

The Bible prophecies of the Chinese aggression we see today and reveals that China will soon take on an even more dominant and belligerent role, as Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry explains in "China Is Steering the World Toward War."

Ukraine's forces began a broadscale invasion of Russia's Kursk region starting on August 6, marking the first time Russia has been invaded by a foreign army since World War II. As the Ukrainians pushed deeper, seizing control of hundreds of square miles, including one of Russia's most important gas-metering stations, officials in Moscow declared a federal-level emergency for both Kursk and the neighboring Belgorod region.

Russia's war has not achieved the easy victory that President Vladimir Putin expected, and this invasion is a humiliation for him. But it is not the end of Russia's war. Putin remains fiercely determined to conquer Ukraine, and the surprise invasion of Russian territory could even prompt him to intensify Russian aggression. Bible prophecy provides insight into Putin's belligerence and determination, as explained in Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry's booklet The Prophesied 'Prince of Russia.'

Increasing cooperation between Russia and China in the Arctic poses a security concern to the U.S. and its allies, according to a Pentagon report published on July 22. Russia has been reopening numerous Soviet-era military sites in the region, the report notes, as China seeks to leverage the "changing dynamics in the Arctic to pursue greater influence and access, take advantage of Arctic resources, and play a larger role in regional governance." The two nations are also rerouting shipments away from the Suez Canal and to the Northern Sea Route, which runs along Russia's Arctic coast from the Kara Sea to the Bering Sea and the Pacific Ocean.

The Bible prophecies of an Asian alliance that will use its control over maritime choke points and shipping lanes, likely including Arctic routes, to economically besiege America. Read our July 2019 article "The Battle for the Arctic." ■

theTrumpet.com/more/anglo-america

The United States economy is built on a foundation of sand. The Dow Jones Industrial Index plunged more than 1,033 points on August 5 amid fears that the U.S. was entering economic recession. It has rebounded since then, but the root causes behind the crisis still remain. The downturn began after the U.S. government released a report showing that the U.S. economy had created only 114,000 new jobs in July. This means the economy is slowing down, but the Federal Reserve was unable to fuel the economy by immediately slashing interest rates because it would cause inflation rates to rise. Since the U.S. government is $35 trillion in debt and on track to run a $1.9 trillion deficit this year, the era of easy money is coming to a close. Proverbs 22:7 says, “The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.”

One consequence of America's debt is reduced defense capacity. On August 11, the Associated Press reported that the U.S. Navy's shipbuilding is at its worst state in 25 years. The U.S. has fewer warships than China, and the gap is growing. China has about 370 ships and is expected to have 435 by 2030, while the U.S. is projected to have only 300. This means America may not be able to defend the oceanic lanes and choke points that it relies on for half of its imports. God promised to bless end-time Israel (primarily the U.S. and Britain) with these sea gates, but America's rebellion against God's law is causing it to lose them (Genesis 22:17).

On the moral front, 25 babies were killed by Planned Parenthood at the Democratic National Convention from August 19-22.

Yet sadly, it is not just Democrats defying God's laws concerning the sanctity of human life and human sexuality. Republicans have also abandoned their decades-long push for a federal abortion ban and a federal ban on same-sex “marriage.” The 2024 Republican Party Platform adopted at the Republican National Convention held from July 15-18 opposes only late-term abortions.

The new Republican Platform pledges to keep men out of women's sports, ban taxpayer funding for sex-change surgeries, and stop taxpayer-funded schools from promoting gender transitions. But unlike the 2020 platform, there is no endorsement of “traditional marriage,” no call to overturn Supreme Court decisions making same-sex “marriage” a legal right, and no mention of same-sex “marriage” period. Republicans have surrendered this fight.

Jude 7 is a strong warning against homosexual “marriage.” It says nations that live like Sodom and Gomorrah will suffer “the vengeance of eternal fire.” Radical leftists in America are actively promoting sexual sins and coming after anyone who speaks against them while conservatives weakly compromise with their agenda. October 7— One Year On

history for Jerusalem today

MY FIRST VISIT TO JERUSALEM WAS FOR A 2022 ARCHAEOLOGICAL dig near where the temple of God once stood. I was manning our dry sifting station one day when an area supervisor walked my way. “This is the money stuff,” he said as he handed over buckets of black ash from a subterranean water shaft. “This is from A.D. 70.” That was the year the Roman Empire destroyed Jerusalem, burning the temple and the city and killing countless numbers of Jews in what historian Josephus summarized as exceeding “all the destructions that either men or God ever brought upon the world.”

This cargo was too precious to sift through quickly or haphazardly. Letting the ash, smooth as Caribbean sand, run through my fingers, I could almost hear the screams of those terrified people; I could almost feel the flames enveloping those poor souls and sending the Celestial City into oblivion.

A.D. 70 marked a horrific turning point for the Jews. Oct. 7, 2023, was another turning point. It was the greatest massacre of Jews since the Holocaust. It forced Israel into war with Hamas, other Iranian proxies and Iran itself, and it unleashed a certain ferocious reaction worldwide—not of sympathy and support for those who had been terrorized, raped, tortured, butchered and killed, but rather of hatred for those people.

Israel is still in mourning. Many, many hostages have yet to return home, if they are yet alive.

Why did God let this happen?

Let's look to Jerusalem's own history for answers. The Romans destroyed the city and the temple in A.D. 70 after the people had received warnings where their wickedness would lead.

When the first temple was destroyed by the Babylonians in 585 B.C., it was only after prophets of God warned the people that this would happen. At that time, they were steeped in Sabbath-breaking, idolatry and even child sacrifice (Jeremiah 17:27; 19:3-5). People in that sex-crazed society “assembled themselves by troops” in brothels and “every one neighed after his neighbour's wife” (Jeremiah 5:7-8). Many were still religious, but their religion was false. False prophets assured them that God was still blessing and protecting the nation (Jeremiah 14:13-16).

In A.D. 70, Josephus—not a prophet but rather a defeated Jewish general—could recognize the root cause of the suffering. “You fight not only against the Romans,” he said, “but against God Himself. You have not avoided so much as those sins that are usually done in secret,” he said. “I mean thefts and treacherous plots against men and adulteries These unrepented sins—more so than even the armies themselves—are what brought suffering and destruction upon the city and the nation!”

Profound insight. These sins, unrepented of—more than the armies themselves—are what brought suffering and destruction upon the city and the nation!

When faced with such appalling, satanic evil as the Jews have experienced, most recently on Oct. 7, 2023, we must let this jolt us into facing not only the physical horrific reality but also the reality of moral and spiritual depravity.

Israel calls Tel Aviv, where an estimated 1 in 4 residents is homosexual, the “gay capital of the Middle East.” Soldiers of the Israel Defense Forces have displayed symbols of sexual perversion even as they fight in Gaza. Abortion, a modern version of child sacrifice, is common: One out of every approximately 600 Israelis is murdered in the womb. People who defy God's loving, beneficial laws (e.g. Leviticus 18:22; Exodus 21:22-23) suffer for it.

The Nova Music Festival, where Hamas murdered and abducted so many on October 7 was a psychedelic trance event celebrating drug use and fornication. And as Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry emphasized, it took place on a day that was not only the weekly Sabbath but an annual holy day.

God will protect us—if we believe Him and obey Him. If we reject Him, we open the door to satanic influence and demonic brutality.

Why is Israel facing the same problems over and over, getting worse and worse? Because the Israelis, like the Americans, the British and other modern nations that trace their history back to the ancient Israelites and to God are doing the same things, committing the same sins over and over, getting worse and worse. Society in Israel, Britain and America is not much different from the one that became A.D. 70 ash.

“Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear” (Isaiah 59:1-2). Isaiah lived in this same city that would later be destroyed because of sin in 585 B.C., in A.D. 70, and at other times, including in our lifetimes. But in Isaiah's lifetime, it was different. Huge numbers of Assyrian killers were about to come pouring into the city—but God slew 185,000 of them in one night. This is what happens when people respond to the warning of a true prophet with belief and repentance!

Oct. 7, 2023, was a horrific tragedy. But the solution is not more weapons, more money or a reset of the Palestinian peace process. The solution—as Jeremiah, Isaiah and many biblical prophets proclaimed—is repentance toward God. ■

THE KEY OF DAVID

The Key of David television program uses end-time Bible prophecy to bring clarity to your world. Every week Philadelphia Trumpet editor in chief Gerald Flurry uses the Bible to solve life's most confusing problems, explain the news, and show where world events are going. You will find answers on a variety of topics such as Christian living, world news, Bible prophecy and the purpose of life.
